Fear Slaying Of Gandhi May Cause Strife

London Is Profoundly Shocked At News Of Tragedy In India

INDIA MAY HAVE SERIOUS OUTBREAKS (BULLETIN)

LONDON, Jan. 30.—(INS)—The assassination of Mohandas K. Gandhi profoundly shocked London today where observers expressed fear that his slaying may precipitate communal outbreaks tantamount to civil war.

The Earl of Listowel, former parliamentary under-secretary for India, said:

Ghastly Tragedy

"This is a ghastly tragedy. I feel the loss of Gandhi. It will be a loss not only to India but to the whole world because he has been an outstanding figure in the struggle for peace in the present generation."

"His loss will be felt everywhere. In such an appalling calamity I can hardly gather my thoughts." Lord Bethel-Lawrence, former secretary for India and Burma, said:

"It is a great shock to learn of the cruel assassination of my intimate friend, Gandhi, the beloved teacher of India. I know there is no wish that he would have had any else—"

Pa Newc Observes

Numerous squirrels on the east side of the city are being treated by the populace of the district. Housewives are seen periodically with bags of nuts feeding the hungry animals.

Forecasts are now being made that the break up of the present severe weather, will probably result in floods in many areas, if an extended mild period develops. Much snow has been deposited on the waterbeds.

Temperature reports this morning in the New Castle area indicated a little modification in the sub-zero wave of the past week or more. Most reports were a few degrees above zero.

Local residents were pleased to get up this morning and find their thermometers registering above the zero mark. Last year, the mercury hit a balmy 61 degrees, so maybe the weatherman will relent soon. One thing is certain, if we are going to have a January thaw this year, it will have to get here mighty soon with only a little more than one day left in January.

The Neal family of the Harbor reports to Pa Newc that on Wednesday morning about 8 o'clock they discovered the most gorgeous rainbow as they glanced out their window. It was most perfect, being complete in circle and all the colors were in. It was the first winter rainbow that the Neals have ever seen. They would like to know the meaning of a January rainbow.

The cold weather of the past several days has not affected the local parking meters, it is observed by Pa Newc. Motorists are able to insert their coins with ease. The old meters produced constant trouble during the winter months with many of them freezing.

Reading rooms of the downtown library are proving quite popular these cold winter days. Many a resident can be found there reading from their favorite periodical or absorbed in some study on a particular subject.

U. P. Assembly To Meet In June At New Wilmington

NEW WILMINGTON, Jan. 30.—The General Assembly of the United Presbyterian church has accepted an invitation from Westminster College to hold the 90th general assembly here, June 9-14. About 300 delegates from all parts of the United States and Canada will attend.

Missing Plane Being Hunted Near Bermuda

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—(INS)—An intensive search was begun in pre-dawn darkness today for a big British South American Airways plane missing at sea on a flight from the Azores to Bermuda.

The United States Coast Guard launched all ships at sea to be on the lookout for the four-engine British craft which was last heard from when it was only an hour and three-quarters of flying time from its destination at Kindley Field, Bermuda.

British South American Airways identified the missing plane as the "Star Tiger," a Tudor aircraft. The call letters of the plane were G-AHNP.

As hour after hour went by without any trace of the missing airliner, a British South American Airline statement issued in London said:

"Hope for the safety of the plane looks black. There's chance, however, that it may have overflown the island."

The plane reportedly carried 28 passengers and a crew of six.

Policing Units For Palestine Are Considered

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Jan. 30.—(INS)—The United Nations Palestine Commission has asked Britain for an opinion on the formation of militias in the Holy Land before the mandate is terminated on May 15.

The commission assigned Vincent J. Francisco, its Philippine member, to conduct the soundings with Sir Alexander Cadogan and bring back an answer on Britain's attitude toward immediate steps in Palestine to lay the foundation for such policing units.

The "five lonely pilgrims" agreed unanimously on the necessity of such initial steps before the mandate terminates and emphasized that the concerns both the formation of Jewish and Arab militias.

French Premier Given Support

PARIS, Jan. 30.—(INS)—Premier Robert Schuman's government cleared another hurdle in its war against the French black market today.

The Council of the Republic, by a vote of 167 to 128, approved a bill withdrawing all 5,000-franc notes from circulation. The measure previously had been passed by the National Assembly, 307 to 286.

A communique from the Ministry of Finance assured the public that all holders of the large notes will be reimbursed when they are turned in. The ministry also demanded published reports that 300-franc and 100-franc notes are to be called in.

Declares Slaying Of Gandhi India's Greatest Disaster

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—(INS)—N. Gopalaswami Ayyangar, chief Indian delegate to the United Nations, today characterized the assassination of Mohandas K. Gandhi as the "biggest disaster that has happened to India in her history."

He made this assertion to Mutual Commentator Henry J. McCossett who broadcast it on his moving program.

Russia Protest U. S. Warships In Italian Territorial Waters

LONDON, Jan. 30.—Russia today protested against the presence of American warships in Italian territorial waters as a violation of the Allied peace treaty.

The Moscow radio quelled a dispatch by the Soviet News Agency Tass which said representations to the American government were made by Alexander Panyushkin, Soviet ambassador to Washington, in a note to Secretary of State Marshall.

(In Washington the State department said that a Russian note protesting the arrival of an American naval squadron at Italian ports was received from the Soviet embassy late Thursday.)

(A department spokesman said there was no immediate comment on the Russian note.)

Expect House To Approve Tax Cut Bill On Monday

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—(INS)—General house debate on the Republican tax reduction bill drew toward a close today as Democrats hurriedly strove to reach agreement on a substitute in time for the voting Monday.

Passage of the six and one half billion dollar measure is anticipated Monday, when it will go to the senate, where a movement is underway to cut the reduction, perhaps to four billion.

With a veto by President Truman anticipated, Republicans hope to line up a two-thirds vote necessary to override.

Influential Democrats, including minority members of the tax-writing house ways and means committee met last night under the leadership of former Speaker Rayburn of Texas but failed to work out a substitute for the Republican measure.

Rayburn declared following the closed meeting that another session would be held today.

Reject Plea For Funds For Draft

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—(INS)—The House Appropriations committee today flatly rejected a plea for funds to plan and train a draft organization as a means of slashing 30 to 90 days from mobilization time in the event of another war.

Maj. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, World War II draft director, had asked the appropriation group to allot $504,000 for this purpose in the fiscal year 1949.

In turning down the request the committee declared that "the sensible and economic" thing to do would be to draw on the reservoir of over 200,000 trained people who comprised the selective service system in the recent war if an emergency should arise "in the foreseeable future."

New Pole Line Is Completed

Pennsylvania Power company attaches today reported that their new nine miles long wood pole line between the Cedar Street substation and state line which connects to the Lowellville plant of the Ohio Edison company has been put into service. The line cost $150,000.

The new improvement further strengthens the Pennsylvania Power company's transmission with the Ohio Edison company. It is also possible to transmit power to Sharon via the Lowellville plant. The present output of the local steam power plant is not yet sufficient for the required peak here, and it is necessary for the company to buy power from the Ohio Edison company.

The wood poles are among the tallest in this section of the country. Others are 80 feet tall, and some 90 feet tall.

Plan Changes In Route 422

Will Be Changed From Dixie Inn To Mt. Chestnut
Is Butler Report

BUTLER, Jan. 30.—Reconstruction of Highway Route 422 west of Butler, between Mt. Chestnut and Dixie Inn, three miles north of Portersville, probably will be started this year, according to information from the State Highway Department.

The project, estimated to cost $3,500,000, was endorsed Thursday afternoon at a special meeting of the Good Roads Committee of the Butler Chamber of Commerce.

The new route, about twelve miles long, will intersect with Route 19, Perry highway, at Dixie Inn to make a direct connection with the New Castle road, also scheduled for early improvement.

The local committee was informed that the highway department is unwilling to modernize the present route to Portersville, and that unless approval can be reached on the new location, action may be delayed indefinitely.

It is understood the highway department objects to a traffic bottleneck at Portersville, insisting upon a straight stretch west of Mt. Chestnut.

Shirley Temple Mother Of Girl

SANTA MONICA, Cal., Jan. 30.—(INS)—Shirley Temple, the top child star only a few years ago today became the mother of a baby girl.

The baby arrived at Miss Temple—Mrs. John G. Agar in private life—at Santa Monica hospital in Santa Monica.

The baby weighed seven pounds, six ounces.

Hospital authorities reported both mother and child as "doing very well."

Miss Temple and Agar were married in August, 1946, while 10,000 persons surrounded the church. They co-starred in their first motion picture together before Miss Temple, now 19, retired to await the stork's visit.

See Congress Battle On Proposed Price Control And Rationing

By JOHN BOOTH
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—President Truman's view that price controls must come before rationing of meat was branded as "dead wrong" today by Sen. Flanders (R-Vt.).

Flanders, author of a measure which would permit the Department of Agriculture to get set for meat rationing, was among the chorus of opposition on Capitol Hill to Mr. Truman's new bid for selective price controls.

The president's request for extended authority to curb use of grain by the nation's liquor makers until Oct. 31 also faced a stiff battle, especially in the House.

Streamliner Is Derailed Near Korty, Nebraska

KORTY, Neb., Jan. 30.—(INS)—The eastbound City of San Francisco Streamliner was derailed at Korty early today and a number of persons were reported injured.

Four persons were taken to a hospital at Ogallala. Doctors and ambulances were dispatched from North Platte. Korty is 28 miles west of North Platte.

All 18 cars on the train were derailed about 12:30 a. m. only one unit of the locomotive remaining on the track. Cause of the accident was not learned immediately.

There were 214 passengers on the Streamliner.

Hotel Burns At St. Albans, Vt.

Four Persons Reported Missing—Eleven Hospitalized—Sixty Flee Blaze

ST. ALBANS, Vt., Jan. 30.—(INS)—A spectacular fire destroyed the Jesse Welden Inn at St. Albans, Vt., today after 80 scantily clad guests fled for their lives in 21 below zero weather, some of them plunging from the second story into snowdrifts.

Four persons, two women and two men, were reported missing although police said exact figures were difficult to obtain because hotel records were destroyed in the blaze.

Eleven persons were hospitalized for injuries ranging from burns to hurts suffered in plunging to the ground to escape the raging flames.

Firemen rescued 26 guests of the four-story structure after they were cut off from five escapes. The hotel was destroyed and damage was estimated at more than $300,000.

Much Concern At Washington

Political And Diplomatic Quarters Shocked At Gandhi Slaying

By JAMES LEE
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—The assassination of Mohandas K. Gandhi, who has been such a force for peace among the teeming millions of India, caused the greatest shock and concern in Washington political and diplomatic quarters today.

State department officials dealing with far eastern affairs went into immediate consultation on the problems which the tragedy was present in the far east.

Gandhi's last great act, it was recalled, was to restore United Nations discussions on any agreement to settle the strife between Hindu India and Moslem Pakistan resulting from the partition which the United States had heartily backed.

Diplomats believed that the fact that the assassination of Gandhi was perpetrated by a Hindu of high-caste might make it less an element in the political differences between the divided states.

However, some disturbances, even so, were believed possible. In any event, it was considered his death removed one of the greatest stabilizing forces in the far east.

Farrell Woman, Son Not Facing Death At Hands Of Yugoslavs

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—(INS)—The state department said Friday that it has been assured that Mrs. Emma Dobellack, an American citizen, has not been sentenced to death in Yugoslavia.

Earlier reports from Belgrade said that Mrs. Dobellack and her ten-year-old son, Stephan, had been sentenced to execution by a Yugoslav court.

Under War U. S. Ambassador to Belgrade Cadogan Cannon inquired into the reports and was assured by Yugoslav authorities that the American embassy would be informed of Mrs. Dobellack's status after an investigation had been made.

Cannon's report that she had not been sentenced to death was the first official word on her status.

State department officials said they had not been informed on published reports from Belgrade that Mrs. Dobellack would be tried for harboring an Ustaich agent operating against Marshal Tito.

Shot Four Times While On Way To Evening Prayers

Indian Apostle Of Peace Is Shot To Death In New

MURDERER HELD;
HIGH-CASTE HINDU

By J. B. SAHNI
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

NEW DELHI, Jan. 30.—Mohandas K. Gandhi, Indian Apostle of peace who devoted his life to the creed of non-violence, was shot to death by an assassin in New Delhi today as he walked slowly and smilingly to his public hour of evening prayer.

The murderer, who was taken into custody after being mauled by the outraged, grief-stricken crowd, poured four bullets into the frail white-cloaked body of the 78-year old "Mahatma" who to countless millions was a saint on earth.

He was identified by authorities as Nathuram Vinayak Godse, a 38-year old Marathi Hindu of high-caste who is a political extremist and who knows English extremely well. Gandhi himself was also a Hindu.

The assassin tried to shoot himself after killing Gandhi but the bullet merely grazed his forehead.

Shock To Millions

The tragic incident, which Premier Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru termed a "great disaster," came as a bewildering, numbing shock to millions throughout India and the world.

New Delhi itself was stunned into a disbelieving silence. But the first of new disorders which officials fear may spread was reported from Bombay. Police opened fire in the Bazaar sector of Central Bombay following stabbing incidents and minor clashes.

As further details of Gandhi's death seeped out it was learned that Gandhi still was breathing when he was carried into his residence Birla house although his eyes were closed. He was placed on a bed and his face was turned to the east.

In Bombay and elsewhere, emergency police precautions were ordered.

To Take Body To Crematorium
It was announced that Gandhi's body will be taken tomorrow to a crematorium on the banks of the Holy River Jumna. The solemn procession will leave at 11 a. m. and reach its destination five hours later.

The murderer had mingled with the crowd that habitually gathered outside Birla house to witness Gandhi's regular evening stroll to prayer.

Inconspicuously dressed in khaki, he was able to lose himself in the admiring throng until the moment came for him to end the Holy man's life.

Shocking Blow

President Says Gandhi Slaying Is Tragic Loss

By JAMES LEE
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—President Truman said today that the assassination of Mohandas K. Gandhi was "a tragic loss to the whole world."

Mr. Truman was informed of Gandhi's death early this morning and White House Secretary Charles G. Ross gave reporters the President's stunned reaction.

The President is expected to issue a formal statement on the tragedy later today.

President Evades Direct Questioning In Regard To Latest Federal Reserve Move

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—(INS)—President Truman sees no reason why he should make any explanation of why he decided to ask Marriner Eccles to step down as chairman of the Federal Reserve Board in favor of Thomas B. McCabe of Philadelphia.

Mr. Truman told a news conference yesterday that it is the president's prerogative to decide who shall be chairman of that board.

Refuses To Answer
He said that he had decided upon the change without any one's suggestion.

Does that mean you prefer McCabe's policies to Eccles' policies? a reporter asked.

The president said he didn't care to answer that.

He was asked whether he had any objection to the senate banking committee investigating the change.

Mr. Truman said of course not, it is their privilege to investigate. But, he added with finality, they can't investigate the president.

Hotel Burns At St. Albans, Vt.

Four Persons Reported Missing—Eleven Hospitalized—Sixty Flee Blaze

ST. ALBANS, Vt., Jan. 30.—(INS)—A spectacular fire destroyed the Jesse Welden inn at St. Albans, Vt., today after 60 scantily clad guests fled for their lives in 21 below zero weather, some of them plunging from the second story into snowdrifts.

Four persons, two women and two men, were reported missing although police said exact figures were difficult to obtain because hotel records were destroyed in the blaze.

Eleven persons were hospitalized for injuries ranging from burns to hurts suffered in plunging to the ground to escape the raging flames.

Firemen rescued 25 guests of the four-story structure after they were cut off from fire escapes. The hotel was destroyed and damage was estimated at more than $800,000.

Much Concern At Washington

Political And Diplomatic Quarters Shocked At Gandhi Slaying

By JAMES LEE
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—The assassination of Mohandas K. Gandhi, who has been such a force for peace among the teeming millions of India, caused the greatest shock and concern in Washington political and diplomatic quarters today.

State department officials dealing with far eastern affairs went into immediate consultation on the problems which the tragedy would present in the far east.

Gandhi's last great act, it was recalled, was to restore United Nations discussions on any agreement to settle the strife between Hindu India and Moslem Pakistan resulting from the partition which the United States had heartily backed.

Diplomats believed that the fact that the assassination of Gandhi was perpetrated by a Hindu of high-caste might make it less an element in the political differences between the divided states.

However, some disturbances, even so, were believed possible. Any event, it was considered, his death removed one of the greatest stabilizing forces in the far east.

Farrell Woman, Son Not Facing Death At Hands Of Yugoslavs

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—(INS)—The state department said Friday that it has been assured that Mrs. Emma Dobeljack, an American citizen, has not been sentenced to death in Yugoslavia.

Earlier reports from Belgrade said that Mrs. Dobeljack and her ten-year-old son, Stephan, had been sentenced to execution by a Yugoslav court.

Probe Under Way
U. S. Ambassador to Belgrade Cadendish Cannon inquired into the reports and was assured by Yugoslav authorities that the American embassy would be informed of Mrs. Dobeljack's status after an investigation had been made.

Cannon's report that she had not been sentenced to death was the first official word on her status.

State department officials said they had not been informed on published reports from Belgrade that Mrs. Dobeljack will be tried for harboring an "Ustachi" agent operating against Marshal Tito.

Indian Apostle Of Peace Is Shot To Death In New Delhi

MURDERER HELD; HIGH-CASTE HINDU

By J. B. SAMNI
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

NEW DELHI, Jan. 30.—Mohandas K. Gandhi, Indian Apostle of peace who devoted his life to the creed of non-violence, was shot to death by an assassin in New Delhi today as he walked slowly and smilingly to his public hour of evening prayer.

The murderer, who was taken into custody after being mauled by the outraged, grief-stricken crowd, poured four bullets into the frail white-cloaked body of the 78-year old "Mahatma" who to countless millions was a saint on earth.

He was identified by authorities as Nathuram Vinayak Godse, a 36-year old Marathi Hindu of high-caste who is a political extremist and who knows English extremely well. Gandhi himself was also a Hindu.

The assassin tried to shoot himself after killing Gandhi but the bullet merely grazed his forehead.

Shock To Millions
The tragic incident, which Premier Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru termed a "great disaster," came as a bewildering, numbing shock to millions throughout India and the world.

New Delhi itself was stunned into a disbelieving silence. But the first of new disorders which officials fear may spread was reported from Bombay. Police opened fire in the Bazaar sector of Central Bombay following stabbing incidents and minor clashes.

As further details of Gandhi's death seeped on, it was learned that Gandhi still was breathing when he was carried into his residence Birla house although his eyes were closed. He was placed on a bed and his face was turned to the east.

In Bombay and elsewhere, emergency police precautions were ordered.

To Take Body To Crematorium
It was announced that Gandhi's body will be taken tomorrow to a crematorium on the banks of the Holy River Jumna. The solemn procession will leave at 11 a. m. and reach its destination five hours later.

The murderer had mingled with the crowd that habitually gathered outside Birla House to witness Gandhi's regular evening stroll to prayer.

Inconspicuously dressed in khaki, he was able to lose himself in the admiring throng until the moment came for him to end the Holy man's life.

Two Men Overcome By Smoke At Blaze Thursday Morning To Leave Hospital Soon

City firemen Clyde R. Rohrer and James N. Boyd overcame by smoke at Thursday morning's fire in the Moser Wall Paper Company, on North Mill street, were reported much improved today, and there is a possibility that they will be discharged from the Jameson Memorial Hospital this afternoon.

They have been kept at the hospital to make sure that no after effects would result from inhaling the acrid smoke and fumes given off by the burning wall paper.

President Says Gandhi Slaying Is Tragic Loss

By JAMES LEE
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—President Truman said today that the assassination of Mohandas K. Gandhi was "a tragic loss to the whole world."

Mr. Truman was informed of Gandhi's death early this morning and White House Secretary Charles C. Ross gave reporters the President's stunned reaction.

The President is expected to issue a formal statement on the tragedy later today.

President Evades Direct Questioning In Regard To Latest Federal Reserve Move

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—(INS)—President Truman sees no reason why he should make any explanation of why he decided to ask Marriner Eccles to step down as chairman of the Federal Reserve Board in favor of Thomas B. McCabe of Philadelphia.

Mr. Truman told a news conference yesterday that it is the president's prerogative to decide who shall be chairman of that board.

Refuses To Answer
He said that he had decided upon the change without any one's suggestion.

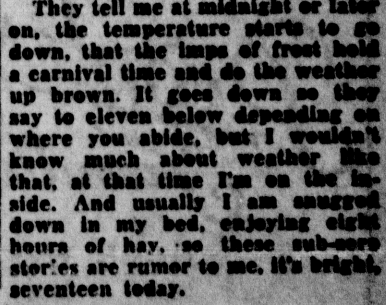

"Does that mean you prefer McCabe's policies to Eccles' policies?" a reporter asked.

The president said he didn't care to answer that.

He was asked whether he had any objection to the senate banking committee investigating the change.

Mr. Truman said of course not, it is their privilege to investigate. But, he added with finality, they can't investigate the president.

They tell me at midnight or later on, the temperature starts to go down, that the lamps of frost hold a carnival time and do the weather up brown. It goes down so they say to eleven below depending on where you abide, but I wouldn't know much about weather like that, at that time I'm on the inside. And usually I am snugged down in my bed, enjoying eight hours of hay, as these sub-zero stories are ruder to me. It's bright, seventeen today.

that his death should not be revenged or made the occasion for further bloodshed and violence but should lead to a reconciliation among all peoples of the great sub-continent.

Tragic To Think Of
L. S. Amery, wartime secretary for India, said: "All Englishmen, without difference of party, will deeply regret the news of Gandhi's assassination."

"It is tragic to think that he, who all his life preached communal unity to Indians, should himself have fallen victim to the frenzy of communal passion."

"His part in the history of India and Anglo-Indian relations in the last generation can only be assessed by history."

"At any rate, it can be said that no one contributed more to the particular way in which the chapter of British rule in India has ended than Gandhi himself."

A spokesman for the Pakistan office in London issued a statement saying:

The Soviet dispatch asserted that the presence of the naval craft is explained by the desire of the United States to render political support to the government of Premier Alcide de Gasperi "which enjoys little prestige among the Italian people."

MEDICAL AUXILIARY LUNCHEON PROGRAM

Lawrence County Medical Auxiliary members gathered for a program and luncheon, Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock, at The Castle, at which time they heard two members of the women's auxiliary to the Medical Society of the State of Pennsylvania.

State President, Mrs. Rufus Bierly outlined the plans of the organization of the women's auxiliary in this area. Mrs. Adolphus Koenig, district counselor made remarks on the administration of the district counselor's duties. She also announced that New Castle has been chosen for the district counselors' meeting on April 14.

President Mrs. Simon Skoie presided, and plans were made for a party to be held sometime in February. Husbands of the members will be guests on this occasion. The event will be given in the New Castle Country club.

Mrs. James Crawford, program chairman announced that the next meeting on March 18, will be a musical program, and will be held at the residence of Mrs. Nathan Ginsburg, 30 East Sheridan avenue. A vocalist and pianist will be featured at this time.

SEMPER FIDELIS

HAS ANNIVERSARY

Semper Fidelis members, their husbands as guests, gathered in the New Penn hotel Thursday evening, the occasion being the 18th anniversary since the organization of the club, formerly a civic group and now a social one.

Rev. Fr. Vincent Bertolini, assistant pastor of St. Vitus church, and honored guest, opened the meal at 7 o'clock with the invocation. A full course roast and chicken dinner was enjoyed with all the trimmings. Valentine place cards marked places, and the appropriate colors were used to decorate the lovely table, centered with a bouquet of fresh roses.

Anthony Mastrian, as master of ceremonies, ably took charge after dinner, and the first speaker was the first president of the club, Mrs. Humbert Fazzone, who told briefly the history of the club, its aims and purposes.

Fr. Bertolini spoke on the need of extending courage and friendliness to one another—a feeling to help thy neighbor, at all times, and lend a helping hand to aspirants who seek a higher goal in life. Fr. Bertolini was also presented with a gift.

Mrs. Carl Tranquillo, president, spoke of the present membership and its future plans and meetings. Congratulations were extended to the club. Guest attending was Miss Palma Julian.

Other speakers who spoke briefly were Elrick and Alfonso Scarazzo, William Fazzone, Carmi Sacco, Ralph Lerner, Anthony Scarazzo, Andrew Sarbo, James Cherol, Carl Tranquillo and Frank Colao. Members also said a few words.

An informal social hour followed and card prizes were captured by Mr. and Mrs. James Cherol, Humbert Fazzone and Mrs. Anthony Mastrian.

The next meeting will be held February 12 at the home of Mrs. Carl Tranquillo, 103 Park avenue.

In View Of News Of The World

By J. C. Ostreicher, INS Foreign Director

Belated admission by Soviet officials that an anti-Communist revolt has long been raging in the Ukraine has brought to the fore one of Joseph Stalin's greatest unacknowledged headaches.

It is the presence within Russia of a closely-knit and very sizeable group of Russians who sprang from German stock and who never have been particularly amenable to Soviet indoctrination.

They are the people of the so-called German Volga Republic, descendants of pioneering German settlers who still call one of their chief towns by the Teutonic name of Marienstadt despite all Soviet efforts to disguise it under a communistic name.

The German colony in the Ukraine was founded many years ago along the Volga. Its chief city is Saratov, a bustling industrial community with a tremendous potential. There are indications that Saratov and surrounding territories have supplied the main spring of action for the anti-Kremlin revolt reported now to have spread as far as the Pripyet marshes of eastern Poland.

German influence in the Saratov region first came to public notice in 1941 when Adolf Hitler attacked Russia. Stalin suddenly discovered a huge "fifth column" in his midst. The population of Saratov at that time was estimated at 200,000 persons.

The Kremlin, of course, went into action speedily. Its secret agents found out rather late that the characteristic Nazi talent for scrupulous organization had not overlooked the German Volga Republic.

Saratov was found to be riddled with storm-troop leaders, would-be assassins, carefully hidden weapons and treasured copies of Mein Kampf.

Fragmentary dispatches at the time told of a wholesale house-cleaning and elimination by one means or another of all persons suspected of being active Nazis.

Not Stamped Out
 It was quite impossible to uproot entire communities of course, and there is no reason to believe that even the thoroughgoing GPU was able to stamp out all embers of Nazism.

Unrest in the Ukraine is an old story. It is the portion of Russia lying closest to western culture and many old families in this region still look upon Moscow—even the imperialist ones who

Looking At Life

By Erich Brandeis

"Don't write about religion," said my wife to me when I told her I was going to write this column. "You know darn well that every time you do, a hundred people write you and give you arguments."

Well, I don't care. To me religion is something living and vital. It's part of my life and I am perfectly willing to argue with all comers about it.

I am not a churchgoer, mind you. I don't believe that I must get up early in the morning on Sunday to worship God.

If God does not live with you in your own home, if his teachings and his words are not in your heart then you have no religion even if you go to church fifty-two Sundays a year and twice every Sunday.

So here goes. Out of Covington, Ind., comes a story that they had a "Bible consciousness" marathon consisting of the reading of the Old and New Testaments from beginning to end and that the job was completed in seventy-four hours.

Conducted in the County Court-house with 175 volunteers reading in half-hour relays, says the story, the job was carried through despite a power failure which necessitated the use of oil lamps and eight lighters for illumination.

A new record has been established and Covington, Ind., now has the proud distinction of having read the Bible faster than it has ever been done before.

Congratulations, Covington, Ind., and now I ask you, "So what?" What have you accomplished by this Bible marathon?

Has it made you better men and women? Has it made you kinder, more tolerant, has it made better Christians of you?

I have read the Bible ever since I was a child. I am not finished with it yet, and I hope I shall never be finished with it.

To me the Bible is not an instrument of torture or of endurance, but a treasure of solace, companionship and wisdom.

I don't give a fig for dogma or creed. I don't care whether that Bible of mine is the Bible of Presbyterian, Methodist, Catholic or Jew.

That Bible of mine contains more sound philosophy of life than any other fifty books or a thousand books.

When I am puzzled about something, when I have reached a dead-end street, I look at my Concordance to my Bible and look up the problem that vexes me.

So far, I have never yet failed to find the answer in my Bible.

The Bible is not something abstract or "hazy," not just a Sunday-school-teaching thing. The Bible is part of you, whether you know it or not.

It is divine, and because it is divine, it is human.

"Cold War" Groundhog

Washington Calling

(By MARQUIS CHILDS)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—The day after General of the Army Dwight D. Eisenhower issued his historic statement saying he could not accept nomination for President, one of his friends asked him if he had ever had an abscessed tooth. Puzzled by the question, Eisenhower replied he had never gone through that painful experience.

"Well, you know now how it feels to get it out," said the friend. That is just how the general feels today. He acted in accord with the deepest dictates of his conscience. And the fact that his decision has been accepted by almost everyone, although reluctantly by most, confirms him in his conviction that he did the right thing.

Necessary To Act
 The general had intended to wait to make his statement when he returns as chief of staff next month. But on the Sunday morning that the Gallup poll showed him leading all other Republican candidates and also President Truman, Eisenhower decided it was necessary to act at once. With a national Eisenhower-for-president organization being formed, too many people were tying their hopes to what the general had all along believed to be impossible. After ten days of effort to make what he wanted to say as clear and as emphatic as possible, the statement was issued.

At about the same time, Eisenhower was coming to another important decision. He was signing a contract to write his story of the war. Here, too, a struggle of conscience preceded the final step.

Eisenhower has been critical of some of the "quickie" war books. He feels they have contributed chiefly to bickering and irritation.

Yet, at the same time, his study of past wars made it clear to him that future historians would turn to these personal memoirs as one of the most important and most easily accessible sources of knowledge. So he was persuaded it was essential for him to write his story.

He has already catalogued his extensive notes. Those notes go back to Gibraltar, when General Ike went there to plan the landing in North Africa in the fall of 1942. He has even begun the writing of his story.

Now, in the two months of "vacation" between his retirement as chief of staff and May 1, when he will go to Columbia university, he hopes to complete the writing job. Then, in order to insure the most thorough authenticity, the manuscript will be turned over to a professional historian who had no part in the events described in the book.

Will Be Correct
 The historian, with the help of one of the general's wartime aides, will check every statement against the official communiqués and reports. From the beginning Eisenhower insisted on this kind of notation. He hopes this will help to keep away from any charge of partisanship and will result in an account of the war that will be personal and yet objective.

At the same time that the political pressure was on, Eisenhower was being deluged by offers from publishers and editors. Naturally, the financial arrangement he was able to work out had something to do with persuading him to

Apparent Apathy In Senate

(By Holmes Alexander)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 30.—It was shortly after lunchtime and Senators were not very attentive when young Senator Fulbright of Arkansas got the floor and began to talk about a United States of Europe. Shortly before he opened his address there had been a slumber debate concerning the plight of the Alaskan Indians and, shortly after he finished, the Senate peeped over a discussion of the late Eisenhower candidacy. Sandwiched between the Redskins and the Supreme Commander, Fulbright had the floor all to himself. He read his address with his glasses down on the end of his nose and with the air of a professor of mine who once told a yawning class: "Pardon me, gentlemen, I have a few more pearls to cast."

Hum Of Social Conversation
 Fulbright spoke amid the rattle of papers and the hum of social conversation on the floor. I noticed that Mr. Taft strolled to the back of the room with a chummy companion and that Mr. Vandenberg, who had surrendered the chair to one colleague, was jovially swapping pleasantries with another. But Fulbright had something worth listening to even if he lacked listeners. He was asking what sort of Europe the European Recovery Program was intended to recover. If it was the Europe of his school days he'd been a Rhodes Scholar. Fulbright wanted none of it. He saw no sense in rebuilding the ancient cockpit where kings, rulers, dictators and revolutionists had been sinking their spurs into the populations for years on end. Europe needed restoration. It also needed reformation. To that end, said Fulbright, he asked the Senate to resolve to find means of establishing a United States of Europe. He also served notice that he would offer the same idea in the form of an amendment when the Marshall plan came to the floor.

Nobody seemed much interested. But there was one Senator who by rights should have rushed up to shake Fulbright's hand if only as a gesture of fraternal felicitity. I mean Senator Glen Taylor, the singing cowboy from Idaho. Taylor has twice offered a resolution asking the United Nations to draft a constitution for a world republic. The Taylor resolution and the Fulbright resolution each received about the same amount of favorable attention.

I called on Taylor in the Senate Office Building. There could be no greater contrast than the one between these two men. Fulbright is a scholar and Taylor is an emotionalist. The Arkansas thinks by the history book. The Idahoan emotes from his knowledge and liking of people. Fulbright has the social graces of foreign travel and education. Taylor is rough-hewn and has an undeserved reputation for goodness, possibly because of his association with Henry Wallace. I asked Taylor to talk about his world republic and he was obliged.

World Needs A Boss
 Any fool could see, said Taylor, that the world needs a boss. Most people assume that the boss must be either the U. S. or Russia. But why need it be either of these governments? Why not a world government? I asked him if he thought representatives of Democracy, Fascism and Communism could all sit in the same world parliament. "Why not?" he demanded. "Right here in Congress we've had Fascists from the southern states and Communies the mentioned Rep. Marcantonio from the big cities." Well, why hadn't his resolution received more backing? Secretary of State Marshall, he said, had advised a group of Senators to let the matter drop.

"Let The Matter Drop"
 One Senator who needed no urging to "let the matter drop" was Senator Hickenlooper of Iowa, a member of the Vandenberg subcommittee on the Marshall plan. Hickenlooper snorted with obvious disdain when I asked him about the idea of a world republic. "It won't work," he said. "It won't work because of Europe's isolationism. This country doesn't have isolationism any more, but Europe does."

This seems a strange remark in view of what's going on in Europe. Sixteen nations have signed a cooperative agreement with the United States. Three others—Belgium, Luxembourg and Holland—on their own initiative have formed a customs union called Badelux. Both major parties in Britain have come out in favor of a "western union" of free European nations. France has indicated that she will join and Italy is expected to decide the same way.

Thus it is difficult to understand the Senate's apparent apathy to the Fulbright-Taylor ideas and even more difficult to accept the Hickenlooper explanation. European federalization is a blood brother to the Marshall plan. We can put Europe on her feet. We can also help guide her feet in the direction of union without which—as the country well knows—there can be neither freedom nor prosperity.

"UNITED STATES" OF EUROPE

We have heard a great deal from time to time about a United States of Europe. The idea was brought forth frequently after the First World War, and now we are beginning to hear of it again.

In theory the proposal envisions the forming of a United States of Europe similar to our own United States of America. It would be an aggregation of free states with a national capital where representatives would go from the states to make laws which affected the welfare of the combined states. Of course, each state would retain its own capital and have its law-making body for purely domestic affairs.

The realization of this dream seems about as far away as ever, but there are some indications we may have a "United States" of Eastern Europe which would resemble the western idea in name only. Soviet Russia seems to have taken hold of the idea and, if successful, will undoubtedly call it a Union of Soviet European states.

Communist Russia has already absorbed the Baltic States and half of Poland, and has a stranglehold on Bulgaria, Czechoslovakia, Rumania, Yugoslavia, Albania and Hungary. She expects before too long to control Eastern Germany, Greece and Austria, and has dreams even of adding Italy and France to the list later on. In bringing about this ambitious scheme to make Moscow the capital of at least Eastern and Central Europe made up of an aggregation of "free" Soviet states, Russia is making use of every known Communist device—lying propaganda, boring from within, stirring up revolutionary activities and applying pressure wherever it will work. Half of this "uniting" program is already completed. Just how fast it will grow from now on remains to be seen.

There are some European nations, of course, which are not yet under Russian influence. They are the ones which hope to get aid from us through the Marshall Plan. Whether application of this plan will stop the march of communism remains to be seen. Certainly we will have to use more than money to stop it, and we may as well make up our minds to that now.

If Russia succeeds in building its kind of a "United States" in Europe it will be far different from the kind our idealists visualize. Instead of a group of free states it will be an agglomeration of stooge states, the legislature in each little capital entirely subservient to the will of Moscow.

Can anything be done to organize a rival United States of Western Europe? With many of these states already embracing semi-Communist socialist doctrines, the outlook is none too promising.

CAVE MEN
 Know what speleology is? Well, you'd better learn because you are going to hear more about it from now on. The dictionary defines it as "the scientific study of caves" and, since the coming of the atomic bomb, it has moved ahead rapidly.

An indication of its growth is the recent formation of a National Speleological Society with 600 members in all parts of the United States.

This new society is certain that there is work for it to do, particularly as a result of the development of atomic energy and the consequent expectation that the national security will require the establishment underground of no small part of industry.

Committees have been formed to carry on scientific studies. They will concern themselves, among other things, with the development of precision apparatus and methods for locating caves.

According to Dr. Ralph W. Stone, in an article in the Proceedings of the Pennsylvania Academy of Sciences, this new prospecting probably will lead to extensions of caves already known to exist and to the discovery of other caves suitable for the erection of factories, for the storage of materials and for civilian refuge stations. Although no mention is made of the fact, it may be assumed that the experiments now being engaged in by the society have the blessing of the government. Some day people may be glad that they were made.

Difficultly about these hells in international conferences is that we lose track of what Molotov is not agreeing to.

One occasionally wonders these days what cold waves are doing when they aren't holding the Middle West in their grip.

Conversation used to be counted upon to keep folks out of "The Hot Place." Now it means you can't even have a warm one.

The wage-price merry-go-round has resolved itself into a situation where the poor consumer is trying to catch up with himself.

New Jersey woman has been given a divorce because her husband rubbed her face with a steak. Presumably, if he had wrapped a mink coat around her he would be electrocuted.

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

CHILDREN WHO ANNOY NEIGHBORS

Are your children a nuisance to the neighbors? Are you receiving a long string of letters complaining of children who are...

Parents who care about cultivating the best character and citizenship in their own children are always thinking of the moral obligation of themselves and their children to the community.

Children Are Bullies
 Some parents say that parents who have children are bullies to younger, weaker children next door or elsewhere on the street, whose children endanger the neighbors' children by playing and fighting with sticks and stones and other weapons; whose children mar or destroy property of the neighbors; or often smash into neighbor's homes when not welcome are not the kind of parents who read this column or read articles and books, or listen to lectures on child guidance.

No doubt very few such parents do read this column; or, if they do, they certainly don't follow its advice. Yet a good many of the parents who have been advised readers of much that has been written for parents, and listeners to many lectures on child upbringing. But there has not been much they could read or hear to make them sensitive to their moral obligations regarding their own children to neighbors. Nor could they have heard or read much on ways and means of disciplining their own children in respect for the rights and possessions of their neighbors. They have, however, read and heard some discussion in ways of protecting their own children against undisciplined neighbor children.

Parent Obligations
 When have you ever read in a book or magazine or heard in a lecture at a local P.T.A. or at a state or national convention of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, emphasis on the parent's obligations to the next-door neighbors?

Imagine what might happen in our America after a few years if the National Congress of Parents and Teachers (with its 4,000,000 members), from the national leaders down to the local leaders were to make a concerted drive for better home discipline with emphasis on training the growing child to respect the rights and possessions of neighbors. Then the neighbors would profit along with the community and nation, not to mention the growing child himself.

Lack Of Self-Control
 Teachers would welcome such a "revolution"; for everywhere teachers are worried over the lack of self-control in the average school child, especially in the better economic areas.

To be sure, most teachers are grateful to the P.T.A. They should be, since the P.T.A. has done far more than any other force to educate the community in the physical and financial needs of the school and to keep salaries from being too low.

But for the teacher's best mental health and efficiency she needs from the P.T.A. what money cannot buy—more children who are well disciplined at home.

BEYOND SELF-SERVICE

These things are true, And true will stay: There's more to do Than work for pay.

There's more to be Than rich and wise, And more to see Than open lies.

From Me To You

By MESEFALL

Today an individual very close to this scribe is celebrating a birthday... not much will be said about the day as everyone he thinks considers a birthday in the same light... true, true... but that doesn't keep us from remembering this 30th day of January with the following:

Would I could bring you some beautiful gift, Something to gladden you, something to charm, A blessing to brighten, to cheer, to uplift, A shield to protect you from shadow of harm!

Had I the power I'd gather for you All the world's treasures of good and of fair, All things to comfort you—friends that are true, Joys that are purest, and pleasures most rare.

These at your feet on your birthday I'd lay Fill its swift moments with quiet delight, Make it divine from its earliest ray, From the gleam of its morn to the dusk of its night

Empty my hands, but my heart holds for you, All the good wishes of heaven and earth, Fragrant as roses at dawn in the dew— With these let me crown the glad day of your birth

They Say

NEW YORK—Senator Hawkes (R) N. J., deploring the idea of government control of those who want to use the power of excessive taxation to crush the free enterprise system don't understand our way of life. If I had my way, I would give them a one-way ticket to Russia.

SCHENECTADY, N. Y. — National Commander of the American Legion O'Neill pleading for universal military training: "The Communists are against U.M.T. for the very good reason that Russia wants a weak United States—a sitting target for possible future operations."

WASHINGTON—Senator Brewster, chairman of the War Investigating committee, discusses the oil transportation shortage: "We sold 85 tankers last summer to foreign countries, apparently in blissful ignorance of the situation we now face."

BERN, Switzerland — Barbara Hutton Troubetzkoy, American diamond heiress, describing her illness: "It is not I who is sick, only my stomach."

State Police Say:— In a complex operation like operating an automobile, fatigue is of considerable importance.

We recognize that when we are tired we cannot play games requiring a combination of quick thought and muscular coordination as well as when we are fresh. The competent driver applied this knowledge to his driving and slows down when he is tired. Through reduced speed he compensates for the effect of fatigue.

Jobs Upon A Time
 Before his crooning drove the bobbie-soxers into ecstasies, Frank Sinatra was a Hoboken newspaper reporter. Mary Stuart took a job as photographer on a newspaper and now she's on the other side of the shooting on a movie lot. She was "discovered" by a talent scout when, wearing a short-skirted uniform, she was taking pictures in a New York night club.

Science continues to take enormous strides... another new discovery is that when a girl is disappointed in love her hair gets slick.

This would indicate that when a girl says: "I can't do a thing with my hair." What she really means is her heart.

But it doesn't explain all the bald-headed men. And they better not tell their wives, "My hair was fine till I met you."

ON BEING CHARMING

"Can you tell me how I may become charming?" Writes Sweet Sixteen. "I should like to make an impression on people, but do not know how."

Answer: The less you think about the impression you are making on others and the less you worry about your charm the more charming you will be. For the thoroughly charming woman is she who totally lacks self-consciousness or any other phases of egotism. She is never a poseur. She is entirely natural, displaying those invaluable assets—those indiscernible something—which nature bestows on certain fortunate individuals.

If you have natural charm, your social life will be a great success without any effort on your part. If you haven't it try to compensate for this lack by making yourself as physically attractive as possible, by improving your disposition, by being kind and thoughtful to all people, by avoiding all degrees of cattiness and petty meanness to women of your acquaintance, by curbing all jealousies which may be lurking in the background of your mind. Always put your best foot forward. Be pleasant, but never "gushy". Watch those who are blessed with this natural gift of attracting friends, compare yourself with them and then make the necessary improvements.

Question: My mother and father have been separated, but not legally, for years. I live with my mother, but see my father occasionally. Should my mother alone announce my marriage, or should both announce it?

Answer: Inasmuch as there have been no legal entanglements in your mother's and father's situation, they may both announce your marriage, if your mother's feelings toward your father are not too bitter to permit their names to be linked together. If, on the contrary, this method might prove distasteful to your mother, she may then announce your marriage without adding her husband's name. When a bride's parents are divorced, the one with whom she makes her home should announce her marriage.

Question: Should a girl go to the jeweler's with her fiancé to select her engagement ring?—Baby

Answer: She might go if her fiancé asks her, but she should not make the suggestion.

THE WORLD AND THE MUD PUDDLES

foodstuffs cannot be expected to carry on industry. So long as necessary food is doled out by the United States, however, and so long as charity takes the place of the means of self-help, there is little likelihood of much progress in increasing food supplies. On the contrary, perpetuation of a spirit of dependence will kill initiative. Our Department of Agriculture might well spend a large share of our contributions in promoting among Europeans our modern methods of farming; our agricultural colleagues and farm organizations, no doubt, would be glad to lend capable farm advisers for such a project.

Stress has been placed on the idea that distress invites Communism. Some emphasis might also be placed on the fact that lateness, voluntary or involuntary, together with a sense of dependence, also tends to promote Communism. A busy Europe certainly would offer less opportunity for the propagandists of Communism than a loafing Europe.

ON BEING CHARMING

"Can you tell me how I may become charming?" Writes Sweet Sixteen. "I should like to make an impression on people, but do not know how."

Answer: The less you think about the impression you are making on others and the less you worry about your charm the more charming you will be, for the thoroughly charming woman is she who totally lacks self-consciousness or any other phases of egotism. She is never a poseur. She is entirely natural, displaying those invaluable assets—those indiscreetly something—which nature bestows on certain fortunate individuals.

If you have natural charm, your social life will be a great success without any effort on your part. If you haven't it try to compensate for this lack by making yourself as physically attractive as possible, by improving your disposition, by being kind and thoughtful to all people, by avoiding all degrees of cattiness and petty meanness to women of your acquaintance, by curbing all jealousies which may be lurking in the background of your mind. Always put your best foot forward. Be pleasant, but never "gushy". Watch those who are blessed with this natural gift of attracting friends, compare yourself with them and then make the necessary improvements.

Question: My mother and father have been separated, but not legally, for years. I live with my mother, but see my father occasionally. Should my mother alone announce my marriage, or should both announce it?

Answer: Inasmuch as there have been no legal entanglements in your mother's and father's situation, they may both announce your marriage, if your mother's feelings toward your father are not too bitter to permit their names to be linked together. If, on the contrary, this method might prove distasteful to your mother, she may then announce your marriage without adding her husband's name. When a bride's parents are divorced, the one with whom she makes her home should announce her marriage.

Question: Should a girl go to the jeweler's with her fiancé to select her engagement ring?—Babs.

Answer: She might go if her fiancé asks her, but she should not make the suggestion.

foodstuffs cannot be expected to carry on industry. So long as necessary food is doled out by the United States, however, and so long as charity takes the place of the means of self-help, there is little likelihood of much progress in increasing food supplies. On the contrary, perpetuation of a spirit of dependence will kill initiative. Our Department of Agriculture might well spend a large share of our contributions in promoting among Europeans our modern methods of farming; our agricultural colleagues and farm organizations, no doubt, would be glad to lend capable farm advisers for such a project.

Stress has been placed on the idea that distress invites Communism. Some emphasis might also be placed on the fact that idleness, voluntary or involuntary, together with a sense of dependence, also tends to promote Communism. A busy Europe certainly would offer less opportunity for the propagandists of Communism than a loafing Europe.

Continue Probing Stories Told By Confessed Killer

SEATTLE, Jan. 30.—(INS)—King county sheriff's officers announced today that the case of Rose Lee Hayton, 32, confessed killer of two of his three matrimonial wives, was far from closed.

The Mason county prosecutor's office said the Seattle contractor would be charged with first degree murder growing out of his confessed shooting of his second wife in 1945.

Probe Disappearance
King county deputies said they were investigating the disappearance of a third woman they said was last seen at Hayton's auto court near Bremerton, Wash., two years ago.

Hayton, during a "truth serum" test Monday, said he deeded a Kansas City, Mo., house to the 28-year-old woman two months after he said he killed his second wife.

He denied knowing anything about the woman's disappearance.

See Need Of Many New Pharmacists

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 30.—(INS)—Qualified pharmacists are needed to staff new pharmacies in Veterans Administration Hospitals and regional offices, according to W. C. Anderson, V.A. pharmacy chief of branch office No. 3.

Salaries for these open positions start at $2,644.00 a year and provide for yearly increases of $125 until the top grade is reached.

Applicants must hold A.B.S. degree in pharmacy from a school accredited by the American Council of Pharmaceutical Education and be a registered pharmacist.

ASKS LORETTA YOUNG RETRACT ALLEGATIONS

LONDON, Jan. 30.—(INS)—Sir Alexander Maxwell, chairman of the British Tourist Holidays Board, has called on Movie Actress Loretta Young to retract allegations that the British are suffering severe hunger and hardship.

Commenting on her statement that she saw no bacon in Britain, Sir Alexander declared "she apparently did not ask for it."

HELICOPTER COMPANY GETS NEW MANAGER

MORTON, Pa. Jan. 30.—(INS)—The Plesco Helicopter Corporation has announced appointment of Brestle A. Rupert as materials manager in the manufacturing division.

Rupert has had twenty years of experience in aircraft manufacturing. He was with the Glenn L. Martin Company for eleven years, the Stinson Aircraft Division of Consolidated Vultee four years, and manager of experimental planning at the Fairchild Aircraft Corporation for several years.

A graduate of Johns Hopkins University, where he received his mechanical engineering degree, Rupert was appointed due to important military production contracts awarded the company.

DRESS YOUR CHILD IN COM- FORTABLE CLOTHES

Don't spoil your child's winter fun by bundling him in so many clothes when he goes out of doors that he is awkward and uncomfortable at play.

Putting on heavy snowsuits and boots is work for your child. The joy of playing outside in the winter is often dampened by the task of getting dressed in go out. It is important to have clothing especially adapted for tiny hands to put on.

Roomy clothing with large openings and zippers is the easiest for a child to put on. Mark your child's right gosh or rubber with a red crayon or red label to make it easier for him to get the right one on the right shoe.

Consider your child's comfort while he is playing out of doors. Lightweight woollens worn under lightweight windproof material will be easy for the child to carry around and at the same time will keep warm in especially cold weather.

Put an extra article of woolen clothing under the windproof suit. The suit should fit comfortably. If it is too loose or too tight, it will hamper the child's activities. Have a low hook that your child can reach to hang his clothes on when he comes in from playing.

Knit woollens stretch too easily when hung on a hook.

A shelf or drawer is best for storing these. You can make the job of pulling his leggings or goshes on and off easier by giving him a low stool to sit on.

Camp Guide Book To Be Published

HARRISBURG—Work on the compilation of data for the 1948 edition of its booklet "Summer Camps in Pennsylvania" was begun this week by the vacation and recreation bureau of the State Department of Commerce so that it may be ready for distribution by mid-April.

The booklet will contain the names and locations of summer camps for boys, girls and adults in Pennsylvania which will be open during the 1948 summer season. Questionnaires are going out to all camps known to the Department asking for detailed information. However, the department wants to list as many camps as possible so owners or managers of all camps should make sure this facilities are listed, and to be sure they should get in touch with the department's vacation and recreation bureau at once.

Oil Industry Has Production Increase

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 30.—(INS)—Robert G. Dunlop, president of the Sun Oil Company, announced that both Sun Oil Company and the American Petroleum Industry in 1947 exceeded all previous records in the production, refining and distribution of its products.

The president, anticipated that 1948 will be a year of even higher production levels for the oil industry, resulting from an ever-increasing desire on the part of consumers, including industry in general.

A sharp rise in Diesel-powered locomotives and the substantial increase in the requirements of the armed forces for petroleum products, all coming in the same year, have placed a terrific burden on the petroleum industry.

Sabbath School Conference Held

Mid-Year Efficiency Conference At First Baptist Church Thursday Most Successful

Splendid attendance and interest greeted the annual Mid-year Efficiency Conference that was held at the First Baptist church, this city, Thursday January 29, afternoon session, Fellowship chicken dinner and evening session.

At the afternoon session plans were made for County and District activities, and general discussion followed. Rev. Raymond F. Wieders, Overseas Relief representative of the Pennsylvania State Sabbath School Association, presented the plans for additional Relief activities in this county. Also at this session Dr. R. F. Calbreath, Religious Education Chairman of the New Castle Ministerial Association, Dr. Frank L. Burton, Superintendent of New Castle Schools, and Rev. Melvin L. Best, Director of Religious Education of the Pennsylvania State Sabbath School Association, presented their views, plans and prospects for Weekday Religion among the fourth and fifth grade pupils of the New Castle schools.

At the close of the afternoon session, for those remaining for the dinner, Robert L. McEvans of the Y. M. C. A. showed two colored Seaville motion pictures.

At the evening session the opening devotions and meditation was in charge of Rev. Oliver W. Hurst, minister of the Conference church, with young people assisting. Special music was furnished by the Quartette and Choir of the First Baptist church, with Robert A. Duff as Director, and Mrs. W. H. Lukart at the organ.

Miss Anna Dadds Temperance Superintendent, presented a plan for sending protests in regard to liquor advertising, and requested Sunday Schools to co-operate. Following this, the Conference divided into three groups, Adult, with Rev. Melvin L. Best as speaker and leader, Young People, with Rev. J. Calvin Rose as speaker and leader, and Children's workers with Mrs. B. F. Johnson as leader and Mrs. Oliver W. Hurst presenting demonstration.

After the reassembly, the Conference closed with an impressive Consecration and Dedication service with a "Friendship Circle."

Nineteen Students Added For Second College Semester

NEW WILMINGTON, Jan. 30.—Nineteen students, all of them former students or transfers, have been admitted for the second semester at Westminster College.

They are: Robert Beishelm, Jesse Bank, Robert Crawford, Robert Greenstein, Paul Decker, John Miller, and Joseph Sacco of New Castle; Leonard Mihalich and Paul Javery, Sharon; John Cooper, New Kensington; Harriet Essonhels, Pittsburgh; Charles Gibson, Ellwood City; Harold Hileman, Connelville; Kenneth Hopkins, Jeannette; John Jeffrey, Dormont; Robert Ward, East Liverpool; Doris Renshaw, East McKeesport; Rayburn Mitchell, Tarentum.

COUNCIL TELECAST
BALTIMORE, (INS)—A Baltimore city council meeting was beamed by television into local homes recently, one of the first telecasts of a council session in the U. S. The telecast covered three hours of the Baltimore council session. The meeting involved the usual transaction of council business.

PHILADELPHIAN HELD ON DISORDER CHARGE

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 30.—(INS)—"I cannot tell a lie, I did it with my little hatchet" not only are the words of George Washington, but could be attributed to Kazimierz Bartowski.

Bartowski, who along with his wife operates a beauty parlor in their Philadelphia home, was held in $5,000 bail for malicious mischief, disorderly conduct and intoxication. He made kindling wood of the beauty parlor and demolished a neighborhood laproom door value at $150.

A semi-automatic, electrically-operated washer has been devised in which giant locomotives can be scrubbed, rinsed and polished in 15 minutes.

The congo snake, a small salamander, is the only one which possesses a voice. When angry or excited it gives a clear whistle. It is native to south U. S. rice fields.

Splendid attendance and interest greeted the annual Mid-year Efficiency Conference that was held at the First Baptist church, this city, Thursday January 29, afternoon session, Fellowship chicken dinner and evening session.

At the afternoon session plans were made for County and District activities, and general discussion followed. Rev. Raymond F. Wieder, Overseas Relief representative of the Pennsylvania State Sabbath School Association, presented the plans for additional Relief activities in this county. Also at this session Dr. R. F. Galbreath, Religious Education Chairman of the New Castle Ministerial Association, Dr. Frank L. Burton, Superintendent of New Castle Schools, and Rev. Melvin L. Best, Director of Religious Education of the Pennsylvania State Sabbath School Association, presented their views, plans and prospects for Weekday Religion among the fourth and fifth grade pupils of the New Castle schools.

At the close of the afternoon session, for those remaining for the dinner, Robert L. Meermans of the Y. M. C. A. showed two colored scenic motion pictures.

At the evening session the opening devotions and meditation was in charge of Rev. Oliver W. Hurst, minister of the Conference church, with young people assisting. Special music was furnished by the Quartette and Choir of the First Baptist church, with Robert A. Duff as Director, and Mrs. W. H. Lukart at the organ.

Miss Anna Dods Temperance Superintendent, presented a plan for sending protests in regard to liquor advertising, and requested Sunday Schools to co-operate. Following this, the Conference divided into three groups, Adult, with Rev. Melvin L. Best as speaker and leader, Young People, with Rev. J. Calvin Rose as speaker and leader, and Children's workers with Mrs. B. F. Johnson as leader and Mrs. Oliver W. Hurst presenting demonstration.

PHILADELPHIAN HELD ON DISORDER CHARGE

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 30.—(INS)—"I cannot tell a lie, I did it with my little hatchet" not only are the words of George Washington, but could be attributed to Kazamar Bartowski.

Bartowski, who along with his wife operates a beauty parlor in their Philadelphia home, was held in $5,000 bail for malicious mischief, disorderly conduct and intoxication. He made kindling wood of the beauty parlor and demolished a neighborhood taproom door value at $150.

Miss Cummings Special Teacher In Mission Fields

Former New Wilmington Resident
Has Important Role in U. P.
Mission Fields

NEW WILMINGTON, Jan. 30.—Miss Esther Cummings, a former local resident, has arrived at Alexandria, Egypt, to begin work in various mission fields of the U. P. church as a "master" teacher of languages.

Miss Cummings is the daughter of the late Dr. and Mrs. T. F. Cummings of New Wilmington, who served for many years as missionaries to the India mission. She is a sister of Dr. James B. Cummings, principal of Gordon college, Rawalpindi, Pakistan.

Miss Cummings has been a teacher in the Biblical seminary, New York City. She has given splendid work in languages to missionaries in the Lovell Murray school at Toronto and at summer conferences at Montreal, N. C., and New Wilmington, Pa.

Her tentative schedule will keep her in Egypt and the School of Oriental Studies for several weeks and then she will move to Khartoum, North Sudan, then to Ethiopia and back to South Sudan. Following a brief stay in Belgian Congo she will return to the United States in August.

Miss Cummings was graduated from Westminster college with the class of 1918.

Home Building Boom In Beaver County

BEAVER, Jan. 30.—In a survey made by the Beaver County Housing Authority, it was revealed Wednesday that more than 1700 homes have been built or are under construction in Beaver county during the past two years.

Most of the new dwellings have been erected in townships, with only 38 appearing in Beaver Falls.

Chippewa township added 783 houses, while White and Patterson townships added 70 and 43 respectively. Alliquippa has 144 new homes.

Generous Giver Hunted By Police

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—(INS)—Police are searching today for Mrs. Lavinia Alberts, 72, who disappeared after placing a box containing $12,800 in cash and negotiable bonds and bank books showing $50,000 of deposits on a neighbor's porch.

Mrs. L. G. Allen, the neighbor, said Mrs. Alberts tossed the box on her porch and walked away. The money was in packets of $1, $5, $10, $20 and $50 bills.

The property was turned over to police. In Europe and Asia, varieties of flowers are utilized for food purposes. It is not rare to hear of geranium soup, shrub cakes, boiled lily, violet preserves, candied jasmine, or rose dessert in these parts of the world.

Probe Likely To Benefit G.O.P.

Party Status May Be Enhanced By Sen. Ferguson's Probe

OTHER NEWS OF NATIONAL AFFAIRS

(Special to Central Press)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 30. — Although the famed Senate war investigating committee is due to die Jan. 31, its work will be carried on under another name by the same man who conducted its most sensational hearings in the last two years.

The work of the committee, first headed by President Truman in his Senate days, is to be assumed by the Senate unit on expenditures in executive departments, of which Senator George D. Aiken (R) Vermont, is chairman.

However, Aiken plans to make Senator Homer Ferguson (R) Michigan, chairman of the subcommittee which will handle the most important investigations.

It was Ferguson who conducted the controversial hearings on Howard Hughes' war contracts and the even more sensational probe which exposed the wartime activities of Maj. Gen. Bennett E. Meyers.

With the wider range he will have under the new setup, Ferguson will have an opportunity to clinch his national reputation as an investigator and climb to a top position in GOP circles.

GOP BUDGET-SLASHING STRATEGY
Republican budget-pruning tactics will center on the Marshall Plan and President Truman's new social and economic development program.

Unlike the president's budget, which is predicted on volume of government spending, congressional leaders will gauge the measure of savings on reductions that can be made in appropriations.

Under this situation, the Marshall Plan request for $5 billion dollars is the most vulnerable of all presidential requests, because the government contemplates spending only $4.5 billion of this total during the first 15 months of ERP operations. Thus, Congress could cut a billion dollars or more from this appropriation without affecting efficiency of the program's operation. Outlook is for such a cut.

More than a billion dollars can be cut from the budget in the social and economic program requested by the president. The program itself, to be carried out over a 10-year period, has come under bitter attack by leading Senate and House Republicans. It is considered a campaign document and no portion has a ghost of a chance of adoption.

In these two categories alone, as much as $3 billion can be slashed from the budget, leaving a surplus large enough to absorb a five-billion dollar tax reduction—a must on the GOP legislative calendar.

ERP AND TWERP

If you think you've heard too much about the Marshall Plan—now known as the European Recovery Program, or ERP—you have heard virtually nothing so far.

The big concern of some of those favoring the plan is that too little has been done to bring it home to the citizens of the middle and far west, where opposition is regarded as most likely to develop.

However, the top advisers have been deliberately holding back. They have decided that they don't want to shoot their bolt and fire people with speeches in behalf of the plan before the crucial days it may face in Congress. To do so, they argue, would help the opposition grab all the headlines and drown out arguments in support of the measure.

As a result, important official statements and arguments for the plan will begin to fill the airwaves and the newspapers early in the year. The kickoff in the middle west will be made by State Department

Counselor Charles E. Bohlen. The citizens committee for Marshall Plan will launch a campaign with its top speakers, including former Undersecretary of State Dean Acheson and former War Secretaries Henry L. Stimson and Robert P. Patterson.

Incidentally, the economists and technicians who drafted the plan have jokingly formed an organization called TWERPS—Technical Wizards for the European Recovery Program.

A-FIGHTIN' AND A-FEUDIN' AND A-FUSSIN'

Republican leaders are set for another battle with President Truman over tax reduction. Changes may be made before the leadership approves the $5 billion dollar Knutson tax-cut bill. However, leaders in both the House and the Senate are lining up behind the general framework of this measure.

Prospects are that the upshot will be a veto and a dead tax bill, as happened twice last summer. The president has made it clear that he will not accept a substantial tax cut now. And GOP leaders do not intend to support a token cut, at least the start.

They will, however, accomplish a major purpose—to put the Republican party on record as favoring a substantial reduction and the President on record as opposed.

They intend to make full use of this issue in the 1948 presidential campaign.

City Mission Board Elects New Officers

Members of the board of directors of the City of the Mission, 17 South Mercer street, met in the Mission Thursday evening for the regular monthly meeting and election of officers. Howard M. Kirk Jr. presided over the session. Following the reading of reports of progress for the past month and the discussion of mission business, the annual election of officers took place which resulted as follows: president, Howard M. Kirk Jr.; first vice president in charge of activities, V. O. Potter; first vice president in charge of building, Wyatt H. Campbell; vice president in charge of finances, Frank Wimer; secretary, A. A. Webb, and treasurer, S. A. Mounsey.

The University of Göttingen, Hanover, Germany, was founded by Georg August, elector of Hanover, better known as George II of England. It was planned as early as 1732, there being no university at Hanover at that time. The formal foundation dates from 1737.

Probe Likely To Benefit G.O.P.

Party Status May Be Enhanced By Sen. Ferguson's Probe

(Special to Central Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30. — Although the famed Senate investigating committee is due to die Jan. 31, its work will be carried on under another name by the same man who conducted its most sensational hearings in the last two years.

The work of the committee, first headed by President Truman in his Senate days, is to be assumed by the Senate unit on expenditures in executive departments, of which Senator George D. Aiken (R-Vermont) is chairman.

However, Aiken plans to make Senator Homer Ferguson (R-Michigan, chairman of the subcommittee which will handle the most important investigations.

It was Ferguson who conducted the controversial hearings on "Howard Hughes' war contracts" and the even more sensational probe which exposed the wartime activities of Maj. Gen. Bennett E. Meyers.

With the wider range he will have under the new setup, Ferguson will have an opportunity to clinch his national reputation as an investigator and climb to a top position in GOP circles.

GOP BUDGET-SLASHING STRATEGY
Republican budget-pruning tactics tics will center on the Marshall Plan and President Truman's new social and economic development program.

Unlike the president's budget, which is predicted on volume of government spending, congressional leaders will gauge the measure of savings on reductions that can be made in appropriations.

Under this situation, the Marshall Plan request for 6.8 billion dollars is the most vulnerable of all presidential requests, because the government contemplates spending only 4.5 billions of this total during the first 15 months of ERP operations. Thus, Congress could cut a billion dollars or more from this appropriation without affecting efficiency of the program's operation. Outlook is for such a cut.

More than a billion dollars can be cut from the budget in the social and economic program requested by the president. The program itself, to be carried out over a 10-year period, has come under bitter attack by leading Senate and House Republicans. It is considered a campaign document and no portion has a ghost of a chance of adoption.

In these two categories alone, as much as 3 billions can be slashed from the budget, leaving a surplus large enough to absorb a five billion dollar tax reduction—a must on the GOP legislative calendar.

ERP AND TWERP

If you think you've heard too much about the Marshall Plan—now known as the European Reconstruction Program, or ERP—you have heard virtually nothing so far.

The big concern of some of those favoring the plan is that too little has been done to bring it home to the citizens of the middle and far west, where opposition is regarded as most likely to develop.

However, the top advisers have been deliberately holding back. They have decided that they don't want to shoot their bolt and tire people with speeches in behalf of the plan before the crucial days it may face in Congress. To do so, they argue, would help the opposition grab all the headlines and drown out arguments in support of the measure.

As a result, important official statements and arguments for the plan will begin to fill the airwaves and the newspapers early in the year. The kickoff in the middle west will be made by State Department Counselor Charles E. Bohlen. The citizens committee for Marshall Plan will launch a campaign with its top speakers, including former Undersecretary of State Dean Acheson and former War Secretaries Henry L. Stimson and Robert P. Patterson.

Incidentally, the economists and technicians who drafted the plan have jocularly formed an organization called TWERP—Technical Wizards of the European Recovery Program.

A-FIGHTIN' AND A-FEUDIN' AND A-FUSSIN'
Republican leaders are set for another battle with President Truman over tax reduction. Changes may be made before the leadership approves the 5.5 billion dollar Knutson tax-cut bill. However, leaders in both the House and the Senate are lining up behind the general framework of this measure.

Prospects are that the upshot will be a veto and a dead tax bill, as happened twice last summer. The president has made it clear that he will not accept a substantial tax cut now. And GOP leaders do not intend to support a token cut, at least the start.

They will, however, accomplish a major purpose—to put the Republican party on record as favoring a substantial reduction and the President on record as opposed.

They intend to make full use of this issue in the 1948 presidential campaign.

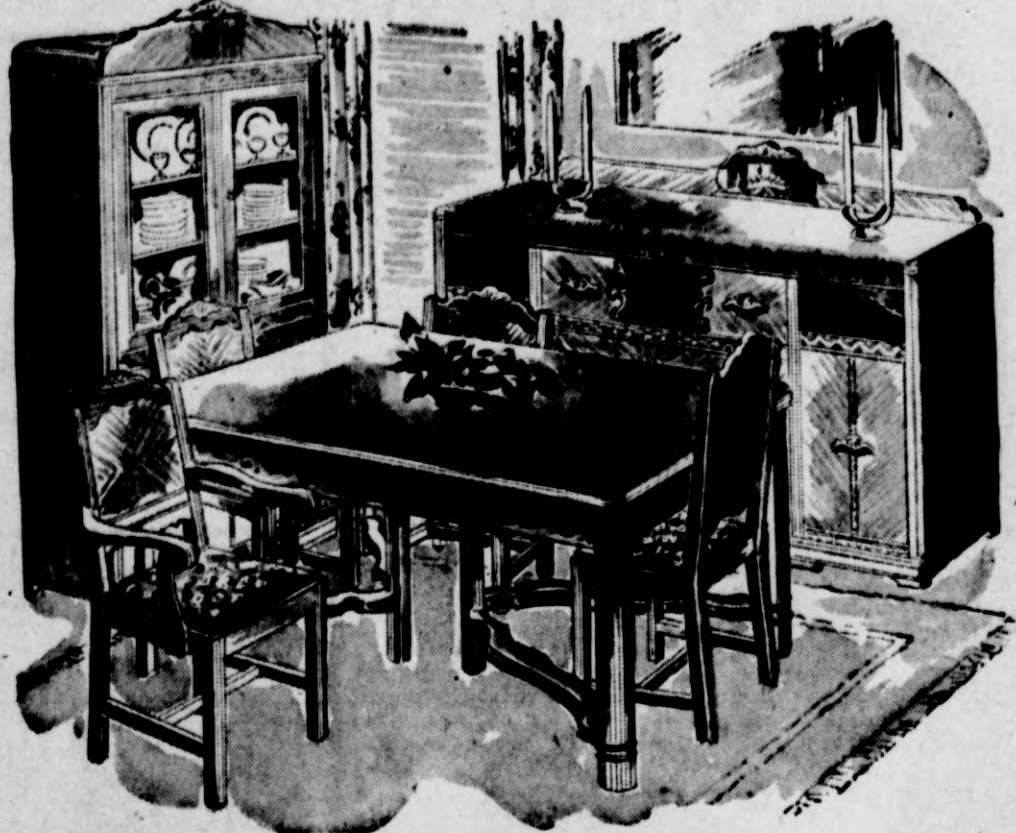

City Mission Board Elects New Officers

Members of the board of directors of the City of the Mission, 17 South Mercer street, met in the Mission Thursday evening for the regular monthly meeting and election of officers. Howard M. Kirk Jr. presided over the session. Following the reading of reports of progress for the past month and the discussion of mission business, the annual election of officers took place which resulted as follows: president, Howard M. Kirk Jr.; first vice president in charge of activities, V. O. Potter; first vice president in charge of building, Wyatt R. Campbell; vice president in charge of finances, Frank Wimer; secretary, A. A. Webb, and treasurer, S. A. Mooney.

The University of Gottingen, Hanover, Germany, was founded by Georg August, elector of Hanover, better known as George II of England. It was planned as early as 1732, there being no university at Hanover at that time. The formal foundation dates from 1737.

Urges All Out Participation In Word War

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—(INS)—A joint House and Senate committee recommended today "all-out, full-scale" American participation in the "word war" in Europe, to combat Soviet "vilification and misrepresentation of the United States."

The 12-member group declared in a report based on two months of study overseas last year that "Europe today has again become a vast battlefield of ideologies." The report added:

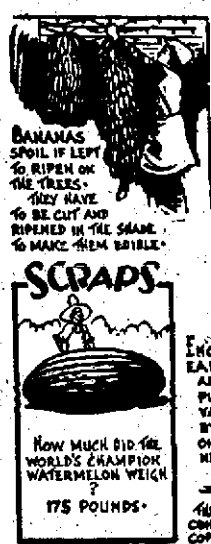

"Words have to a large extent replaced armaments as the active elements of attack and defense."

Recreation Center For First Methodist

The efforts of the Elitikon class of the First Methodist church have produced results in the way of a new recreation room. This new room will be formally opened on Monday evening, when members of the Elitikon class will gather at the church for a spaghetti dinner. Rev. P. P. Submonetti, pastor of Christ Methodist church, will prepare the meal for this evening.

The new room is equipped with shuffle-board and ping-pong. It is newly redecorated, and new lights have been installed by the Moody Men's Bible class. A schedule of nights will be arranged so that the various groups of the church may use the new recreation center. Other equipment will be added from time to time. The official board of the church has appropriated money for this recreation center because the congregation believes that young people should find part of their recreation and good times in the church and under the auspices of the church.

Auxiliary Leader Is Home From Tour Of War Cemeteries

Representative Of American Legion Auxiliary Finds Cemeteries Well Kept

American War cemeteries in Europe are beautifully located, well maintained and are deeply respected by the people of the communities in which they are located.

This was the report made by Mrs. Norton H. Pearl, of Detroit, Mich., last year's National President of the American Legion Auxiliary, on her return from a six-week tour of the cemeteries and battle fields in the European area. Mrs. Pearl with Mrs. Lee W. Hutton, of Excelsior, Minn., National President, and Mrs. Gwendolyn Wiggin MacDowell, of Story City, Iowa, National Secretary, formed the official auxiliary delegation on the American Legion's European tour. They visited cemeteries in England, France, Belgium and Italy.

"Before we left for Europe," said Mrs. Pearl, "we received many letters from mothers asking us to see the spots where their boys are buried and report back to them the condition of these cemeteries. A special purpose of our tour was to carry out these requests."

"Whenever we visited a cemetery, people living in the community came to meet us, the women carrying flowers in their arms for us to place on the graves. They told us that they considered it a privilege to go to the cemeteries on American holidays to honor the American dead."

Westminster Team Debates Topic Of World Federation

Team Of Students Debate World Federation Vs. United Nations To Ensure Peace

An audience of nearly 60 people heard the Westminster College Debate team debate the question "Resolved: That Federal World Government Should Be Established" at a meeting in the Y.W.C.A. Thursday evening sponsored by the adult group of the World Federalists. The topic is the one being debated by college teams throughout the United States this year.

Arguing the affirmative were Miss Marilyn Leary, of Rockville, N. J., Burke Dorworth, of Oil City, and John Douglas, of New York, N. Y. Mr. Douglas summed up and cross-examined for the affirmative team.

Negative arguments were advanced by Peggy Lee Reed, of New Wilmington, Richard Stone, of Monaca, and Glenn Reed, of Mt. Jackson, with the latter summing up and cross-examining for his team.

Affirmative arguments centered on the premise that international law will be necessary to ensure world peace and the negative side cited the United Nations as an effective instrumentality for ensuring peace.

Miss Frances Haydon, secretary-treasurer of the World Federalists, presided, and it was voted to ask Dr. Wilbur Flannery to preside at future meetings until the May election.

Next meeting will be Thursday, February 26.

QUESTIONS FROM THE GROOM'S MOTHER

"Will you kindly answer these questions? I read your column every day and enjoy it. (1) At a 5 o'clock wedding, which is most proper for the bride's mother, a street-length dress or a long dress? (2) If a long dress, must a hat be worn? (3) Who buys the groom's ring in a double ring ceremony? (4) Both the groom's father and the bride's mother are soists in their church choir. Would it be proper for the bride's mother to sing a solo just prior to the wedding and the groom's father to sing "I Love You Truly" at the finish of the ceremony. This is the bride's wish. (5) The bride has a sister, the groom has two sisters and the bride has a life-long friend. Which one should be maid of honor as they will all wish to be included in the wedding party?"

Answer: (1) Usually, although not necessarily, both mothers wear long dresses. (2) Hats are essential. (3) The bride should supply the groom's ring in a double ring ceremony. (4) Yes. (5) Logically, her sister.

Question: To settle a dispute, please tell me if guests at a church wedding should stand or remain seated. I think they should stand during the ceremony only.

Answer: Upon their arrival at the church, guests are shown to their proper pews by the ushers. They are seated and remain seated until the organist plays "The Wedding March" and the bride procession starts up the aisle. Then the guests should rise and remain standing during the entire ceremony and the recessional, except at Catholic ceremonies where they may be required to kneel. Guests should not leave their pews until the parents of the bride and groom, followed by the guests "within the ribbons" have been escorted to the door.

Present your problems to Miss Markel who will promptly mail personal replies to questions from readers including stamped, self-addressed envelopes.

When it comes to government spending, in his state-of-the-nation message President Truman was the guy who mounted his horse and rode off in all directions.

QUESTIONS FROM THE GROOM'S MOTHER

"Will you kindly answer these questions? I read your column every day and enjoy it. (1) At a 5 o'clock wedding, which is most proper for the bride's mother, a street-length dress or a long dress? (2) If a long dress, must a hat be worn? (3) Who buys the groom's ring in a double ring ceremony? (4) Both the groom's father and the bride's mother are soloists in their church choir. Would it be proper for the bride's mother to sing a solo just prior to the wedding and the groom's father to sing "I Love You Truly" at the finish of the ceremony. This is the bride's wish. (5) The bride has a sister, the groom has two sisters and the bride has a life-long friend. Which one should be maid of honor as they will all wish to be included in the wedding party?"

Answer: (1) Usually, although not necessarily, both mothers wear long dresses. (2) Hats are essential. (3) The bride should supply the groom's ring in a double ring ceremony. (4) Yes. (5) Logically, her sister.

Question: To settle a dispute, please tell me if guests at a church wedding should stand or remain seated. I think they should stand during the ceremony only.

Answer: Upon their arrival at the church, guests are shown to their proper pews by the ushers. They are seated and remain seated until the organist plays "The Wedding March" and the bride procession starts up the aisle. Then the guests should rise and remain standing during the entire ceremony and the recessional, except at Catholic ceremonies where they may be required to kneel. Guests should not leave their pews until the parents of the bride and groom, followed by the guests "within the ribbons" have been escorted to the door.

Babson Takes Occasion For Weather Discussion

By ROGER W. BABSON
(Copyright, 1948, Publishers Financial News, Inc.)
BABSON PARK, Pa., Jan. 30.—Letters are coming to me stating that the Old Farmers' Almanac is forecasting a summer for 1948 similar to that of 1816 when there was freezing, or at least frost, every month of the year. Upon reading carefully this publication I do not find such a statement, although it describes this cold summer of 1816. This fact might lead a reader naturally to think that a similar summer is expected in 1948.

What About Sunspots?
There are many people who believe that a very close relationship exists between weather conditions and sunspots. Those who are interested in the details of such a study should write to Professor H. C. Willett, Meteorology Department, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Cambridge, Mass., or Professor H. T. Stetson, author of "Sunspots in Action," c/o Ronald Press, 15 East 28th street, New York, N. Y. Probably there is some connection between sunspots and both crops and business which we do not yet understand. The science of all forecasting is in its infancy. Briefly the sunspot theory is that when these spots are very brilliant and active, we suffer from either, or both, very hot and very cold weather. It is further true that these sunspots will be brilliant in 1948.

On the other hand, since the cold summer of 1816, when the sunspots were very brilliant, there have been many other years when the sunspots were equally brilliant and when none of the corresponding years were badly upset by weather conditions. Therefore, as a statistician, I would say that there is no existing evidence for farmers to worry about concerning sunspots, although there may be much for the radio broadcasting companies to worry about from sunspots. In short, all scientists believe that sunspots have an important effect upon the vegetation of the earth as well as upon the men and animals—but not enough evidence exists to enable forecasts to be based thereon.

Importance of Diversification
The failure of certain crops due to a wet spring or early frost, or too much or too little rainfall, may be expected almost any year. On the other hand, as years go on, each crop failure should be less disastrous than preceding ones owing to the lessons which may be learned. The important thing, however, which all farmers and others interested in farm crops should recognize is the importance of diversification of both location and rotation so that a fair portion of the crops will come through safely whatever may happen to certain other crops.

When Purchasing a Farm
Now a word of advice to those who are looking for farms, but have not yet purchased one: Get a farm in the central part of the country which is not too subject either to dry spells or wet spells. Buy a farm equally divided between upland and bottomland, with some woodland and with an independent water supply. Before making any purchase, visit the new U. S. irrigation developments in the southwest. They are worthy of careful study as the so-called "Arid" land is very very rich. The very fact that it has not had rainfall, causes it to retain the minerals and vitamins which have been largely washed out of much farm land subject to normal rainfall throughout the centuries.

Ancient people thought emeralds sharpened the wits, conferred riches, and when placed under the tongue, gave power of prediction.

PRR Offers Bids For Certificates To Buy Equipment

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 30.—(INS)—The Pennsylvania railroad has invited bids for the purchase of $10,890,000 of equipment trust certificates, the second installment of an aggregate principal amount not exceeding $32,010,000 of certificates under Pennsylvania railroad equipment trust, series "S".

This will finance the construction and acquisition of passenger and freight equipment.

Total cost of this equipment is estimated at not less than $41,137,500, and the balance of the cost will be provided by the company.

Certificates will be dated July 1, 1947, and will mature in fifteen installments, the last maturity to be on July 1, 1962.

Bids will be received by the company for the amount up to 11:00 a. m. on Tuesday, February 3, 1948, and bidders are asked to name the dividend rate proposed by them for the certificates.

U. S. COAST GUARD RECRUITER DELAYED, WILL BE HERE MONDAY

Due to unforeseen circumstances, the United States Coast Guard was unable to have a representative at the New Castle post office last Monday. However, interested applicants are urged to contact him this Monday.

There are many opportunities for young men with no previous military service, between the ages of 17-25. Basic training will be taken in Mayport, Florida, and will last for 6-8 weeks. There are also openings in petty-officer ratings for ex-servicemen. Time spent in the service can be added onto the age limit to bring ex-servicemen within the age limit. Ex-servicemen will be assigned to their home district for their initial assignment.

Navy Offers 80 Specialty Schools

Chief Machinist's Mate S. E. Bond of the New Castle navy recruiting station announces that there are now over 80 different navy specialty schools available for young men desiring to continue their education at Uncle Sam's expense. These schools are located in continental United States and include a school for practically every skilled vocation. For further information on this and other navy subjects contact your local navy recruiter in the post office building between 2 a. m. to 4:30 p. m. daily except Sundays.

There are many people who believe that a very close relationship exists between weather conditions and sunspots. Those who are interested in the details of such a study should write to Professor H. C. Willett, Meteorology Department, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Cambridge, Mass., or Professor H. T. Stetson, author of "Sunspots in Action", c/o Ronald Press, 15 East 20th street, New York, N. Y. Probably there is some connection between sunspots and both crops and business which we do not yet understand. The science of all forecasting in its infancy. Briefly the sunspot theory is that when these spots are very brilliant and active, we suffer from either, or both, very hot and very cold weather. It is further true

In short, all scientists believe that sunspots have an important effect upon the vegetation of the earth as well as upon the men and animals—but not enough evidence exists to enable forecasts to be based thereon.

Causes of the 1816 Cold Summer
After careful study of this famous 1816 summer, I conclude that the cause of the low temperatures was the dust in the air covering the skies of the entire world. It was a year of several volcanoes in action. These might well have caused dust in the air which could shut off the sunshine. I further understand that certain other cold summers have come along in conjunction with many dust storms and other causes.

The above is not saying that 1948 may not witness a cold summer, but farmers and others will be wise to plan upon normal weather, at least so far as temperature is concerned. As to rainfall, this seems to follow a cycle and many sections of the United States are now entering a dry cycle. Crops which can prosper with little rainfall are to be preferred during 1948.

Importance of Diversification
The failure of certain crops due to a wet spring or early frost, or too much or too little rainfall, may be expected almost any year. On the other hand, as years go on, each crop failure should be less disastrous than preceding ones owing to the lessons which may be learned. Bethel Baptist Church

REV. EARL COLLINS

Baptists of New Castle announce the formation of a Baptist church to be known as the "Bethel Baptist church", which will meet in the attractive building on Cunningham avenue, at Long avenue, formerly known as the Hungarian Baptist church.

The pastor of the new church will be Rev. Earl E. Collins, who served the Harmony Baptist church 1943-1947 when he resigned to engage in evangelistic work.

Services will be conducted Sunday, February 1, beginning with Bible school at 10 a. m. and worship at 11 a. m. There will also be an evening "old time revival time" at 7:45 o'clock when the "Gospelaires" made quartet will sing several numbers. Pastor Collins will preach both morning and evening. There will also be a mid-week service Wednesday at 7:45 p. m.

The pastor of the First Baptist church, Rev. Oliver W. Hurler, and several of the members have expressed delight that another English speaking Baptist church will serve the community.

The Bethel Baptist church anticipates cooperative activity in the Beaver Baptist Association, Pennsylvania Baptist convention and Northern Baptist convention.

Receive Largest Order In Union For Heating Units

YORK, Pa., Jan. 30.—(INS)—The largest order for automatic heating equipment ever signed in the United States, for 4,000 boiler units of a new and special design, has been received by York Shipley Co., Inc.

Mitchell Landau, executive assistant to S. H. Shipley, president, said that production will begin next month.

The contract, involving more than a million dollars worth of oil-fired automatic heating units, was concluded with Levitt and Sons Inc., of New York, the country's largest builder of quality homes. The new boiler units will be built to provide automatic heat and hot water for about 4,000 new homes to be constructed at a new development at Manhasset, Long Island, Landau said.

BEDFORD RESIDENT CHOSEN PRESIDENT JUNIATA COLLEGE

HUNTINGDON, Pa., Jan. 30.—(INS)—Robert J. Hershberger, Juliana Heights, Bedford, has been elected president of the freshman class at Juniata college. He was formerly the chairman of the class.

Hershberger, a graduate of Bedford high school, was a member of the Juniata college football squad as a reserve tackle. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hershberger.

Other officers of the class are: Barbara E. Hebben, Philadelphia, vice president; Edith A. Roberts, Washington, N. J., secretary; Hilton R. Hines, Carney's Point, N. J., treasurer.

Arthur Kohnfelder opened with prayer, with the president greeting the group. The following made up the program: "What will happen in 1948?" Ansel Connell, talk; Robert Peebles, music; Herbert Wallace and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Miles. Special guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Howard Humphrey, Cliff Martin and daughter, Lillian; Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Glenn, Mrs. Bernice Glenn, Mrs. Mary Dight, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Miles and Mrs. Olsen.

Lunch was served by the hostess, aided by the younger group.

PLAINGROVE NOTES

The grange met at the hall on Tuesday evening and following opening exercises, Mrs. Bernice Olsen, lecturer took over. Miss Roberta Cory, accompanied by Mrs. Bernice Olsen, sang a solo; roll call was answered with the thought, how far had each been away from home and how they got there; a panel discussion on horses and tractors ensued with Mrs. Cory and Walter Rodgers for the horses and Mrs. Ruth Patterson and Robert Burns for the tractors. Lunch was served by the social committee.

Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Shaw, T. Friday, with an all day meeting taking place and a twelve dinner served at noon. Quilting and making quilt patches took place. Mrs. Adda Offutt took charge of the program with talks by Mrs. Mary Burns, Mrs. Mary Winder and Mrs. Edith Gardner. Mrs. Bertha Rodgers spoke on Spiritual Life. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Werner and Carol, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Best of Moravia were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson. Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Benis and family of Flint, Mich., are spending some time at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Eppinger.

UNIVERSITY TO BE HOST AT TWO-DAY STATE CONFERENCE

BETHLEHEM, Pa., Jan. 30.—(INS)—Lehigh university will be host to some 200 student representatives of colleges of the middle Atlantic states for a two-day session of the regional conference of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers on April 16 and 17. The visiting students will tour the industrial plants. Papers for prizes will be delivered by students at sessions and a banquet with industrial leaders is planned.

Road Petition Heard By Viewers

Petitions Taken Out To Place Daylight Saving On Ballot In New Castle

OTHER EVENTS IN COURT HOUSE

Before a board of viewers on Friday the petition of Andrews Brothers for maintenance of roads in North Beaver township was heard. The petition asks that the supervisors of the township be forced to take over maintenance, the roads running through Jackson Knolls, a recently opened subdivision.

Witnesses testified that it was necessary for maintenance of the roads in order to provide mail service, delivery service of various kinds and to permit ingress and egress without difficulty.

The viewers hearing the petition were Attorney James E. Chambers, engineer, W. Leslie Wilson and Harold F. Seidel, a business man of Ellwood City.

DAYLIGHT SAVING VOTE

As indicated in this column a few days ago, petitions have been taken out to place upon the ballot in April the question of whether New Castle will observe daylight saving time from June 1 through August. The petitions are now being circulated.

TO LEAVE SERVICE

Miss Estella Adams, of the probate court's office, leaves the service of the county on Saturday. She will enter the service of a New Castle business house. Miss Adams has had seven years service on the hill and leaves with the good will and respect of all who know her.

Cattle Growers

Reducing Herds

HARRISBURG, Jan. 30.—(INS)—Pennsylvania cattle growers have reduced grain-fed herds six per cent for 1948 because of the scarcity and high cost of feed. It was reported by Agriculture Secretary Miles Horst.

A federal-state survey showed Pennsylvania livestock producers had 85,000 feeder cattle on hand at the first of the year. In contrast to 90,000 in January, 1947, Horst said.

Cattle growers plan to market their beef at lighter weights due to the feed problems, he declared.

Reports disclosed that 25 per cent of grain-fed herds weigh between 900 and 1100 pounds, compared to nearly 35 per cent last year. Forty-five per cent of feeder cattle at present weigh between 600 and 900 pounds, in contrast to 40 per cent a year ago.

Plan 'New Look' In Philadelphia

Revitalization Of Quaker City Will Cover Span Of Several Years

By JAMES CARROLL JR.
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 30. — (INS)—Staid, but historic Philadelphia is definitely in for a "new look."

It's going to take years to affect the change, but a new Philadelphia story is certain to be written. The first step toward revitalization of the Quaker City's worn out, uneconomical neighborhoods was taken recently when the City Planning Commission certified nine blighted areas for redevelopment.

And, as Edward Hopkinson, Jr., chairman of the commission put it, "this is only the beginning." The recommended program for converting Philadelphia into one of the nation's most modern cities will cost nearly $500,000,000.

Between now and 1952 alone, improvements costing more than $302,000,000 have been recommended and scheduled. Historic buildings and sites won't be destroyed by the "new look" planned for the city, but rather will be enhanced by the creation of "dignified and beautiful" settings in keeping with their importance.

Historic Independence Hall, shrine of American freedom, will be literally "lifted" out of a jumble of old commercial buildings and converted into a spacious mall which probably will include underground parking facilities.

Hopkinson said that when the "new look" is given Independence Hall, it will become a shrine "worthy of the pride of all Americans."

Another eyesore that will disappear from the Philadelphia scene as the redevelopment campaign moves forward will be the "Chinese Wall" familiar to all Philadelphians.

The wall, a blight of railroad

tracks along the north side of Market street in downtown Philadelphia from the Schuylkill to City Hall, is to be torn down.

In its place will appear modern Pennsylvania boulevard. But the Chinese Wall removal will be costly, for railroad tracks now running atop it will have to be moved underground and bridges over Pennsylvania Boulevard will have to be constructed.

But Philadelphia's "front door" will see taken from one of its "most shabby fringes of obsolescence" when the Chinese Wall goes.

To improve traffic conditions in mid-Philadelphia, these projects eventually will result:

(1) An industrial highway, a double-deck drive, and an adequately built Vine street will supply an inner traffic ring which will divert much traffic now congesting in center city streets.

(2) An underground parking system to handle nearly 30,000 cars in mid-city.

(3) "Perimeter parking" at points outside the congested central area, which have fast public transit service to mid-town.

Some $100,000,000 of the projected improvements will go toward the job of keeping Philadelphia clean.

Improved water supply, extensive sewer and water lines, better refuse disposal—all these are on the agenda.

More than $50,000,000 will be directed toward keeping Philadelphia's "people and goods in motion."

That means modern transportation facilities to make the auto, bus and truck more useful to the city, now, like all large American cities, bedeviled by congestion. The goal is a complete system of express highways with feeder streets tied into it.

In addition, railroad and port facilities will be fitted to the demands of modern industry and trade. Airports development to catch up and keep up with future needs likewise is listed.

New Recreation Program

The kids aren't to be forgotten either, for the "new look" program calls for recreational improvements—such as general improvement and rehabilitation of 63 existing areas and swimming pools.

Besides, many new recreational sites, swimming pools, etc., are to be constructed. Even a new home for juvenile delinquents is on the agenda.

To protect all the proposed improvements, the program lists improvements for police and fire services totaling nearly $11,000,000. A new police signal system, new police stations, new fire stations, and rehabilitation of the fire alarm system are among these improvements.

Even the monstrosity of Philadelphia—sprawling City Hall—will come in for redevelopment. The hall's ancient power system which fails on an average of several times weekly will be replaced with a modern system. Also new elevators, heating equipment, etc., will go into the hall eventually.

LIBRARY SUSPENDS

WILKES-BARRE, Pa.—The 59-year-old, 110,000-volume Osterhout Library, 71 South Franklin street, was forced to suspend lending and reference operations for 10 days when the boiler of the outmoded heating plant burst, leaving the picturesque library—a former church—unprotected against the cold.

Gilbert S. McClintock, secretary-treasurer of the board of directors of the endowed institution, said the heating plant is beyond repair and an immediate decision was made to convert to city steam. This installation will require a minimum of 10 days.

Since the beginning of the Christian era it is estimated about 40 billion persons have lived in the world.

Scout Troop Will Receive Charter

Special Event At New Wilmington On February 9 For Kiwanis Scouts

NEW WILMINGTON, Jan. 30.—Members of Boy Scout troop 33, sponsored by the Kiwanis club, will be guests of the club at a dinner Feb. 9 in the Methodist church at which time the troop will receive its charter.

Thomas Allen, district scout commissioner of New Castle, will make the presentation.

Twenty-one boys are now working for classifications in the troop, according to a report to the club by Lyman Ringbloom, scoutmaster.

James Crisswell is the first to win first class honors. Ten have passed the tenderfoot test. They are William Boyle, Larry Tate, Thomas Hartwell, John Klump, Walter McGinnis, Thomas McGaffie, Bernard Pearson, Robert Dick, Robert Woods and James Shearer.

Members of the Happy Hour society will meet at the home of Mrs. Alan B. Davis on Tuesday at 9 p. m. Associate hostesses are Mrs. E. A. Sittig and Mrs. James Seley.

Mrs. James Smith will have charge of devotionals while Mrs. Elizabeth McKean will lead the mission study. Mrs. Clara Webb is entertainment chairman.

PAYROLL SAVINGS

How many times will you hear workers say "I wouldn't have saved a cent if it wasn't for my payroll savings deductions for war bonds. This same plan is in force for U. S. savings bonds. Save regularly and watch your dollars grow in U. S. savings bonds."

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 30. — (INS)—Staid, but historic Philadelphia is definitely in for a "new look."

It's going to take years to affect the change, but a new Philadelphia story is certain to be written.

The first step toward revitalization of the Quaker City's worn out, unbecomingly dilapidated neighborhoods was taken recently when the City Planning Commission certified nine blighted areas for redevelopment.

And, as Edward Hopkinson, Jr., chairman of the commission put it, "this is only the beginning."

The recommended program for converting Philadelphia into one of the nation's most modern cities will cost nearly $500,000,000.

Between now and 1952 alone, improvements costing more than $302,000,000 have been recommended and scheduled.

Historic buildings and sites won't be destroyed by the "new look" planned for the city, but rather will be enhanced by the creation of "dignified and beautiful" settings in keeping with their importance.

Historic Independence Hall, shrine of American freedom, will be literally "lifted" out of a jumble of old commercial buildings and converted into a spacious mall which probably will include underground parking facilities.

Hopkinson said that when the "new look" is given Independence Hall, it will become a shrine "worthy of the pride of all Americans."

Another eyesore that will disappear from the Philadelphia scene as the redevelopment campaign moves forward will be the "Chinese Wall" familiar to all Philadelphians.

The wall, a blight of railroad

tracks along the north side of Market street in downtown Philadelphia from the Schuylkill to City Hall, is to be torn down.

In its place will appear modern Pennsylvania boulevard. But the Chinese Wall removal will be costly, for railroad tracks now running atop it will have to be moved underground and bridges over Pennsylvania Boulevard will have to be constructed.

But Philadelphia's "front door" will see taken from it one of its "most shabby fringes of obsolescence" when the Chinese Wall goes.

To improve traffic conditions in mid-Philadelphia, these projects eventually will result:

(1) An industrial highway, a double-deck drive, and an adequately built Vine street will supply an inner traffic ring which will divert much traffic now congesting in center city streets.

(2) An underground parking system to handle nearly 30,000 cars in mid-city.

(3) "Perimeter parking" at points outside the congested central area, which have fast public transit service to mid-town.

Some $100,000,000 of the projected improvements will go toward the job of keeping Philadelphia clean.

Improved water supply, extensive sewer and water lines, better refuse disposal—all these are on the agenda.

More than $50,000,000 will be directed toward keeping Philadelphia's "people and goods in motion."

That means modern transportation facilities to make the auto, bus and truck more useful to the city, now like all large American cities, bedeviled by congestion. The goal is a complete system of express highways with feeder streets tied into it.

In addition, railroad and port facilities will be fitted to the demands of modern industry and trade. Airports development to catch up and keep up with future needs likewise is listed.

New Recreation Program

The kids aren't to be forgotten either, for the "new look" program calls for recreational improvements—such as general improvement and rehabilitation of 63 existing areas and swimming pools.

Besides many new recreational sites, swimming pools, etc., are to be constructed. Even a new home for juvenile delinquents is on the agenda.

To protect all the proposed improvements, the program lists improvements for police and fire services totaling nearly $11,000,000. A new police signal system, new police stations, new fire stations, and rehabilitation of the fire alarm system are among these improvements.

Even the monstrosity of Philadelphia—sprawling City Hall—will come in for redevelopment. The hall's ancient power system which fails on an average of several times weekly will be replaced with a modern system. Also new elevators, heating equipment, etc., will go into the hall eventually.

LIBRARY SUSPENDS

WILKES-BARRE, Pa.—The 58-year-old, 110,000-volume Osterhout Library, 71 South Franklin street, was forced to suspend lending and reference operations for 10 days when the boiler of the outmoded heating plant burst, leaving the picturesque library—a former church—unprotected against the cold.

Gilbert S. McClintock, secretary-treasurer of the board of directors of the endowed institution, said the heating plant is beyond repair and an immediate decision was made to convert to city steam. This installation will require a minimum of 10 days.

Since the beginning of the Christian era it is estimated about 40 billion persons have lived in the world.

Scout Troop Will Receive Charter

Special Event At New Wilmington On February 9 For Kiwanis Scouts

NEW WILMINGTON, Jan. 30.—Members of Boy Scout troop 33, sponsored by the Kiwanis club, will be guests of the club at a dinner Feb. 9 in the Methodist church at which time the troop will receive its charter.

Thomas Allen, district scout commissioner of New Castle, will make the presentation.

Twenty-one boys are now working for classifications in the troop, according to a report to the club by Lyman Ringbloom, scoutmaster. James Crisswell is the first to win first class honors. Ten have passed the tenderfoot test. They are William Boyle, Larry Tale, Thomas Hartwell, John Klump, Walter McGinnis, Thomas McGaffie, Bernard Pearson, Robert Dick, Robert Woods and James Shearer.

Members of the Happy Hour society will meet at the home of Mrs. Alan B. Davis on Tuesday at 8 p. m. Associate hostesses are Mrs. E. A. Shlig and Mrs. James Seley. Mrs. James Smith will have charge of devotionals while Miss Elizabeth McKean will lead the mission study. Mrs. Clara Weber is entertainment chairman.

State Farmers Urged To Spend Wisely In 1948

By JACK WARD

(N. S. Pennsylvania Farm Editor)

HARRISBURG, Jan. 30.—(INS)—

Pennsylvania farmers were cautioned to spend conservatively and manage efficiently during 1948.

Agricultural extension specialists of Pennsylvania State College urged economical and efficient farm management and minimum spending in view of prevailing high cost and uncertainties inherent in the future.

Kenneth Hood, chief of Agricultural Economics, and Earl L. Moffitt, farm management specialist, predicted that demands for farm products will maintain high production, but warned that margins between prices and costs will narrow.

They urged farmers in general to be conservative in use of funds, to clear debts, and re-invest a part of their income in farm business. In addition, they were cautioned to maintain a strong cash position and to defer major construction projects for another year.

Production and marketing of higher quality goods will yield proportionate returns in view of widening quality margins, they added.

Livestock growers will be wise to maintain normal numbers, but cull low producers, the specialists said. At the same time, livestock owners must increase feed production, with particular emphasis on pasture improvement, they declared.

The yearly meeting of the Northeastern Poultry Producers Council will return to pre-war form at Harrisburg September 14-16 when the 11th annual convention is held in the State Farm Show building.

More than 5,000 poultry producers from 13 northeastern states will attend the exposition. It was announced. Approximately 1000 commercial exhibits and displays will be featured in the main farm show building.

Two new hybrid field corns, the first developed especially to meet Pennsylvania growing conditions, will be available in limited quantities for 1948 planting. It has been announced by the agricultural experiment station.

L. L. Huber, of Pennsylvania State College, reported the new hybrids both are resistant to stalk-rot and insects, particularly corn borer and corn leaf aphid.

Seed is available in half-bushel quantities to extend trials of the hybrids, he said, and may be obtained through the Pennsylvania Crop Improvement Association.

"We have tried these hybrids in field tests for the past two years and feel that at last we have corn that's adapted to Pennsylvania conditions," he explained. "However, the farmers of the state are the final judges."

Will Debate Before Female Audience. NEW WILMINGTON, Jan. 30.—The odds will be against a pair of Westminister college male debaters when they appear at Mt. Mercy college, Pittsburgh, Feb. 6.

Before an all-female audience the men, John Keresky of Youngstown and Glenn Reed of Mt. Jackson, will take the negative side of the question "Resolved that undergraduates should marry."

The Westminister debaters officially open their year Feb. 5. During the afternoon, two teams of women debaters will appear before the Thursday club at the home of Mrs. J. W. Creighton. That evening two co-ed teams from Mt. Union college will be here.

Melvin Moorhouse of the speech department is debate coach.

Health, Education Leaders To Meet. HARRISBURG, Jan. 30.—(INS)—Pennsylvania health and education leaders will meet at Harrisburg today to adopt a program to provide health examinations for pre-school children registered for classes next fall.

The conference was scheduled to approve plans setting forth the time and scope of the examination and the method of obtaining approval through the health department. It was announced.

Attending the meeting will be representatives of the Pennsylvania departments of health and public instruction, Parent-Teachers' Congress leaders and officials of the Pennsylvania Tuberculosis and Health society.

Lax Immigration Laws Are Cited. WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—(INS)—Rep. McDowell (R) Pa., charged Thursday that lax immigration regulations have permitted thousands of Communists and Fascists to enter the United States.

He recommended that the house un-American activities committee make a complete investigation of the situation.

The congressman said that he has heard evidence in a closed session of his subcommittee on Fascism that at least 80,000 Communists, Fascists and alien criminals are illegally in the United States.

Marshall Plan Endorsed By U.S. Farm Body

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—(INS)—

Two major farm organizations have endorsed a strong endorsement of the Marshall plan today with warnings against providing "too little" or "too rigid conditions" for repayment of consumable goods.

The spokesman for the American Farm Bureau Federation and the National Grange, testifying before the Senate Foreign Relations committee, expressed the views of more than two million farmers.

Post Office Dept. Can Furnish Maps

Persons who would like to have a map showing many of the roads in the county, and all of the various rural routes, can obtain them from the United States Post Office Department, for a small charge. It was learned from Postmaster William R. Hanna, today.

These are blue-print maps and show virtually every road in the county, with the roads covered by each rural route in minute detail. The cost of these maps is fifty cents, and must be prepaid by money order, postal note or check. They can be obtained by writing to the Superintendent, Division of Finance, Post Office Department, Washington, 25, D. C.

DO NOT DRIVE ACROSS BRIDGE

Parks Director Joseph D. Alexander today announced that the wooden bridge on the driveway to Cascade Park has weakened and has been barricaded to prevent that persons in autos, en route to skate, use the Hamilton street route to reach the lake where skating is good.

More Acres Seeded To Wheat In State

HARRISBURG — The acreage seeded to winter wheat in Pennsylvania last fall is estimated at 964,000 acres, a five per cent increase over plantings for the 1947 crop, according to the State Department of Agriculture.

Federal-state reports show that the acreage seeded to rye is placed at only 24,000 acres, by far the lowest on record. In 1937 a total of 398,000 acres was harvested.

Planting and growth of wheat and rye were retarded by dry soils and one-half normal rainfall during September and October. Seeding continued well into November but some acreage intended for wheat was not planted.

State Farmers Urged To Spend Wisely In 1948

Economical And Efficient Farm Management In View Of Prevailing High Cost Living

By JACK WARD (N. S. Pennsylvania Farm Editor) HARRISBURG, Jan. 30.—(INS)—Pennsylvania farmers were cautioned to spend conservatively and manage efficiently during 1948. Agricultural extension specialists of Pennsylvania State College urged economical and efficient farm management and minimum spending "in view of prevailing high cost and uncertainties inherent in the future."

They urged farmers in general to be conservative in use of funds, to clear debts and re-invest a part of their income in farm business. In addition, they were cautioned to maintain a strong cash position and to defer major construction projects for another year.

Production and marketing of higher quality goods will yield proportionate returns in view of widening quality margins, they added.

Livestock growers will be wise to maintain normal numbers, but cull low producers, the specialists said. At the same time, livestock owners must increase feed production, with particular emphasis on pasture improvement, they declared.

The yearly meeting of the Northeastern Poultry Producers Council will return to pre-war form at Harrisburg September 14-16 when the 11th annual convention is held in the State Farm Show building.

More than 5,000 poultry producers from 13 northeastern states will attend the exposition, it was announced. Approximately 1000 commercial exhibits and displays will be featured in the main farm show building.

Two new hybrid field corns, the first developed especially to meet Pennsylvania growing conditions, will be available in limited quantities for 1948 planting. It has been announced by the agricultural experiment station.

L. L. Huber, of Pennsylvania State College, reported the new hybrids both are resistant to stalk-rot and insects, particularly corn borer and corn leaf aphids.

Seed is available in half-bushel quantities to extend trials of the hybrids, he said, and may be obtained through the Pennsylvania Crop Improvement Association.

"We have tried these hybrids in field tests for the past two years and feel that at last we have corn that's adapted to Pennsylvania conditions," he explained. "However, the farmers of the state are the final judges."

More Acres Seeded To Wheat In State HARRISBURG — The acreage seeded to winter wheat in Pennsylvania last fall is estimated at 894,000 acres, a five per cent increase over plantings for the 1947 crop, according to the State Department of Agriculture.

Federal-state reports show that the acreage seeded to rye is placed at only 24,000 acres by far the lowest on record. In 1937 a total of 338,000 acres was harvested.

Planting and growth of wheat and rye were retarded by dry soils and one-half normal rainfall during September and October. Seeding continued well into November but some acreage intended for wheat was not planted.

OFFICERS MEETING TONIGHT
President Nick Perrotta announces there will be a meeting of the officers of St. Margaret's Council No. 74, Sons of Columbus, this evening, at 7:30, in St. Margaret's hall.

SNOW CLEARED AWAY
According to word from Mahoningtown post office, the rural carrier reports that the snow has been removed from around the mail boxes real well, but some farmers have been placing milk cans in front of the boxes, which should not be done, as it blocks the approach.

Saving Stamp Sales Mounting Steadily

From the office of Mahoning schools a report that the sales of government savings stamps are mounting steadily.

Since commencement of the term last September, the total purchased by the pupils has reached $1738.35, and it is hoped that with the next month to reach the $2,000 mark.

Class 6-201 is still leading the school in purchases, with a total of $199.10, and class 4-105 next in line with $176.70.

There was a good response by the school to the "March of Dimes" on Thursday of last week.

Trainmen Suffer Injury To Eyes

Two Pennsylvania Railroad trainmen suffered eye injuries over night which required hospital treatment when they got cinders in their eyes while at work. Both were treated at the Jameson Memorial hospital and referred to eye specialists.

The injured were: George Lawton, aged 23, of 7424 Everett avenue, Cleveland, O., fireman, who was treated at the hospital at 7 p. m. Thursday; and C. E. Porterfield, aged 24 years, of 104 N. Liberty street, a brakeman, who was treated at the hospital at 3:30 a. m. today.

Mrs. Robert Headley Sr. of Alexandria, Ala., has returned home by plane, after visiting for a week with her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Headley Jr. and daughter, Jaie, of 923 North Cedar street.

Taylor Township Auxiliary Meets

Members of the Taylor Township Volunteer Firemen Auxiliary met Wednesday evening, and auditors were chosen to be Mrs. Joseph Schultz and Mrs. Thomas Freed. Reports were also heard.

Plans were made for a social event on February 24, with husbands as guests. Those in charge are: Mrs. Andy Tusale, Mrs. Jack Burich, Mrs. Joseph Schultz and Mrs. A. Recktor.

Hostesses, Mrs. Joseph Schultz and Mrs. Anthony Germaine later served a dainty lunch.

February 25, is the next meeting, hostesses to be, Mrs. Joseph Sparr and Mrs. Thomas Rowe.

Delinquents Paying Taxes

Persons who failed to pay their occupational tax for 1944-1947, are doing so now, according to attaches of the city solicitor's office, which is having notices showing persons are delinquent delivered by two police department plainclothesmen.

It appears that in a majority of cases the matter was neglect, rather than intention, an attaché of the solicitor's office reported. Most people when they receive the notices, which are delivered in a courteous manner, pay them immediately instead of taking 30 days, as permitted.

Americans read more newspapers than the people of any other country, with more than 40 per cent of the population over ten years old buying papers here.

Officers Inducted By NAACP Branch

Thomas Farrow Will Continue In Office As President For Coming Year

At the installation meeting of the New Castle Branch of the NAACP, which took place in the game room of the Elm Street Y.W.C.A., Thomas Farrow was inducted as president to serve again during the coming year.

The meeting was well attended, and the group heard an interesting review of the article in Saturday Review written recently by Walter White, executive secretary of the NAACP, on "Why I Remain a Negro." His conclusion was that whether one failed or succeeded in life did not depend on whether one is black or white, but on one's individual ability and perseverance. Comments were given by Mrs. K. H. Beck and Rev. McFarland.

Mrs. Raymond Williams conducted the devotional service, which included the singing of the Negro Anthem. After the program tea was poured by Mrs. Ethel Foster and Mrs. Dorothy Catlin.

Mrs. Otha Jackson was soloist, and accompanying were Miss Corrine Gariside and Miss Shirley Webber.

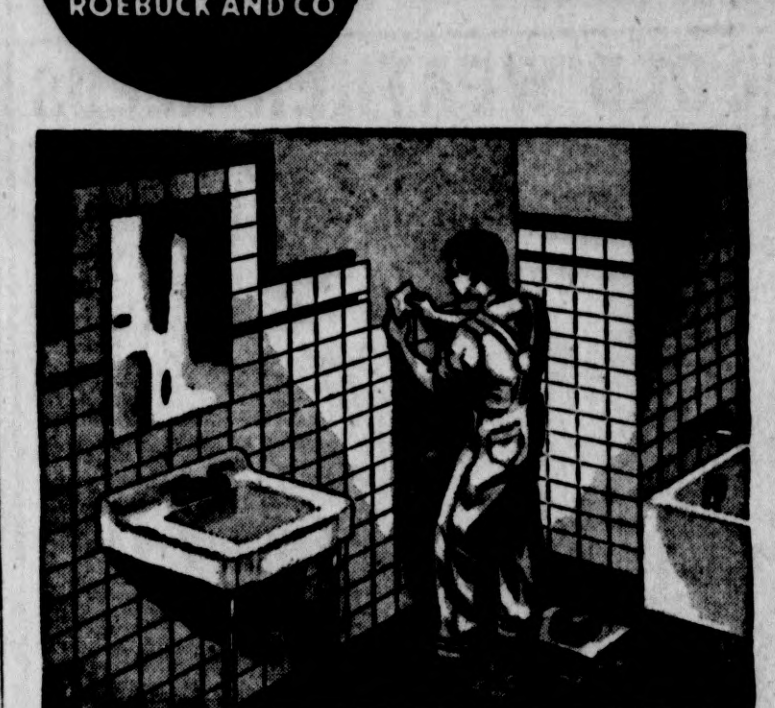

Rev. H. J. Payton, pastor of St. Paul's Baptist church, installed the new officers and instructed them in their duties.

The officers who will serve during the coming year, are: president, Thomas Farrow; first vice president, John Campbell; second vice president, Fred Money; Ellwood City; treasurer, Berl Hall; secretary, Corrine Gariside; asstant secretary, Otha Jackson. The members of the executive committee are: Dr. G. W. Garnett, Dr. James A. Gillespie, Rev. J. L. McFarland, J. G. Crunkleton, Mrs. Blanche Dillard, Mrs. Dorothy Gatlin, Mrs. Mattie Webber, R. O. Mitchell, William Eady and Earl Webber.

Political and religious differences have often been marked by the form of hats. The Puritans of the reign of Charles I adopted the steeple hat, high and narrow, with a broad brim, untrimmed. The Cavaliers wore a lower and broader crown, with a feather stuck on one side.

Boy Scouts Meet Thursday Evening

Have Classes In First Aid And Compass Work; Plan Hike
For February 7

Members of the Boy Scouts Troop X4 met on Thursday evening in the recreation room of Mahoning Methodist church, with Robert Olmstead, scoutmaster, in charge.

The opening exercises were led by Richard Cangey and Harry Senheiser, junior assistant scoutmasters.

There was class work given in first aid and compass.

Various games were played, under the supervision of Harry Senheiser.

A hike was planned for Saturday, February 7. Hikemaster will be Kenneth Sicks, one of the patrol leaders.

Next meeting will be Thursday evening, February 5, in Mahoning church, with Assistant Scoutmaster John Huff in charge.

Bible Class Honors

Mrs. J. L. Petrie

On Thursday evening members of the McCoy Bible class of Mahoning Methodist church assembled in the home of Mrs. Herbert Cowley of 505 West Madison avenue.

The group then proceeded to the parsonage on West Clayton street for a party in honor of Mrs. J. L. Petrie's birthday anniversary.

Sewing and chat was the pastime of the evening.

A delicious lunch was served by Mrs. R. C. Cather, Mrs. Samuel Fowler, Mrs. William A. Moss, Mrs. H. Cowley, Mrs. Robert Withers, Mrs. Herbert Cowley, president, presented Mrs. Petrie with a lovely collection of dishes on behalf of the group.

OFFICERS MEETING TONIGHT
President Nick Perrotta announces there will be a meeting of the officers of St. Margaret's Council No. 74, Sons of Columbus, this evening, at 7:30, in St. Margaret's hall.

SNOW CLEARED AWAY
According to word from Mahoningtown post office, the rural carrier reports that the snow has been removed from around the mail boxes real well, but some farmers have been placing milk cans in front of the boxes, which should not be done, as it blocks the approach.

Saving Stamp Sales
Mounting Steadily

From the office of Mahoning schools a report that the sales of government savings stamps are mounting steadily.

Since commencement of the term last September, the total purchased by the pupils has reached $1738.35, and it is hoped that with the next month to reach the $2,000 mark.

Class 6-201 is still leading the school in purchases, with a total of $139.10, and class 4-105 next in line with $176.70.

There was a good response by the school to the "March of Dimes" on Thursday of last week.

Trainmen Suffer
Injury To Eyes

Two Pennsylvania Railroad trainmen suffered eye injuries over night which required hospital treatment when they got cinders in their eyes while at work. Both were treated at the Jameson Memorial hospital and referred to eye specialists.

The injured were: George Lawton, aged 22, of 7424 Everett avenue, Cleveland, O., fireman, who was treated at the hospital at 7 p. m., Thursday; and C. E. Porterfield, aged 24 years, of 104 N. Liberty street, a brakeman, who was treated at the hospital at 3:30 a. m. today.

MARINE VISITS PARENTS
Pfc. Richard Davis, attached to the U. S. Marines, has returned, after spending week-end leave visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Davis, of 407 West Madison avenue. Pfc. Davis is stationed at Elizabeth City, N. C.

DAVIS BIBLE CLASS
This evening at 8 o'clock members of the Davis Bible class of Mahoning Methodist church will meet with Mrs. Stewart Fey of 518 West Madison avenue.

SEVENTH WARD PERSONALS
Mrs. J. B. Comstock of North Cedar street, who was ill at her home, has recovered nicely, and returned to her employment.

Robert Headley Jr. of 923 North Cedar street, who is affiliated with the G. C. Murphy company, is confined to his home with illness.

Mr. and Mrs. George Warren of 110 E. Wabash avenue have returned following a sightseeing tour through Texas and Mexico. Among the cities visited were Laredo, Austin and Monterrey.

Mrs. Robert Headley Sr. of Alexandria, Ala., has returned home by plane, after visiting for a week with her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Headley Jr. and daughter, Jaie, of 923 North Cedar street.

Taylor Township
Auxiliary Meets

Members of the Taylor Township Volunteer Firemen Auxiliary met Wednesday evening, and auditors were chosen to be Mrs. Joseph Schultz and Mrs. Thomas Freed. Reports were also heard.

Plans were made for a social event on February 24, with husbands as guests. Those in charge are: Mrs. Andy Tusaie, Mrs. Jack Burich, Mrs. Joseph Schultz and Mrs. A. Recker.

Hostesses, Mrs. Joseph Schultz and Mrs. Anthony Germaline later served a dainty lunch.

February 25, is the next meeting, hostesses to be Mrs. Joseph Sparr and Mrs. Thomas Rowe.

Delinquents
Paying Taxes

Persons who failed to pay their occupational tax for 1944-1947, are doing so now, according to attaches of the city solicitor's office, which is having notices showing persons are delinquent delivered by two police department plainclothesmen.

"It appears that in a majority of cases the matter was neglected, rather than intention" an attaché of the solicitor's office reported.

Most people when they receive the notices, which are delivered in a courteous manner, pay them immediately instead of taking 30 days, as permitted.

Americans read more newspapers than the people of any other country, with more than 40 per cent of the population over ten years old buying papers here.

Income Taxpayers Are Urged To File Returns Promptly

Taxpayers Who Will File On Short
Form W-2 Particularly Asked
To Make Prompt Return

Stanley Granger, collector of internal revenue for the western Pennsylvania area, today asked taxpayers to file their income tax returns as promptly as possible in order to avoid the 11th hour rush, which is certain to come by the first of March.

Those who expect to file returns on the W-2 short form blank are particularly requested to file their returns now. This can be done at the local internal revenue office, second floor Post Office building, here. General speaking, the Form W-2 (employee statement of earnings) may be used where other income does not exceed $100 and where total deductions for taxes, interest, and medical expense do not exceed 10 per cent of the gross income as stated on Form W-2.

Taxpayers should prepare their own forms at home, where at all possible, and can assist the local office by adding up their combined earnings, and tax withheld from all employers, in cases where they were employed during the year by more than one employer.

All employers are requested to cooperate by furnishing their employees statement of earnings as promptly as possible.

To Teach Students Repairing Of Books

BETHLEHEM, Pa., Jan. 30.—(INS)—Howard S. Leach, librarian at Lehigh University, has announced that students will be taught how to repair books.

The project, initiated by Miss Mary Voss, assistant cataloguer, and James Dennison, a senior who has done similar work in the New York public library.

The students will earn money while learning the job, and at the same time offer a service to their classmates. Savings are expected since the cost of commercial binding has increased and time will also be saved as volumes can be rebound within 24 hours.

BIVALVES

Oyster and clams and other shellfish having two shells are called bivalves.

Some of them are good to eat. With our rapid transportation and good refrigeration we can have sea food often.

Fried oysters are a good proposition. They should not be cooked too long.

Face Shortage

Books, Teachers

LEWISBURG, Jan. 30.—(INS)—Schools in the American zone in Germany face an acute shortage of both trained teachers and textbooks.

The discouraging educational picture was painted by Dr. Frank G. Davis, professor of education at Bucknell university, who spent three months in Europe.

While on an extended visit in the German state of Hesse, Davis was commissioned by the U. S. military government to make a survey for a proposed guidance program in the schools and in the labor office.

He will present shortly the report of his findings and his recommendations for the program.

Villages in the American zone are swollen with German refugees who have crossed from the Russian zone despite constant vigilance of American authorities, Dr. Davis reported. He noted lack of "neighborliness" between the two zones.

PRR Announces

Opening Four-Year

Student Scholarship

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 30.—(INS)—The Pennsylvania Railroad has announced the opening of a competition for a four-year scholarship at the University of Pennsylvania beginning in September.

The scholarship established at the university, in 1920, by the "Pennsylvania Railroad Women's Division for War Relief" in honor of the employees of the freight traffic department who lost their lives in World War I, is open to sons and daughters of present or deceased employees of the railroad's traffic department.

Tests for the next award will be held in May, and the winner is entitled to tuition in any four-year course at the university.

Number One Choice

Before Withdrawal

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—(INS)—A Fortune magazine survey released today shows that Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower was the nation's No. 1 choice for president before he withdrew from the race.

The magazine said the retiring chief of staff led President Truman, with Republicans Thomas E. Dewey, Harold E. Stassen and Gen. Douglas MacArthur virtually tied for third place in the poll.

The survey was conducted before Henry Wallace announced his candidacy on a third party ticket.

Report Inventors Are Applying "New Look"

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—(INS)—The patent office reported today that inventors have taken the "new look" to heart and begun applying it to everything from baby carriages to farm equipment. In fact patent officials declare, whatever innovations France may make to further progress of her zany fashions, the ingenuity of American inventors will outdo in making more desirable the common things in life.

Regarding "new look's" latest style creation—stocking rolled below the knee, Circa 1920—patent authorities proudly point to a recent set of patents issued for:

1. A baby carriage, with sleigh runners to replace the wheels when Jack Frost overcomes Ol' Sol.
2. An auto jack which operates by chemical reaction, eliminating muscle action and inflating tires in the same fliz.
3. A plow which operates without a horse or tractor, by means of a wheel which glides the plow along a Farmer Jones works "handie bars up and down."

The baby carriage-aid, officials say, was probably inspired by the wintry inconveniences of Minnesota where the inventor lives.

Bit More Complicated
The auto jack is just a bit more complicated. The jack is equipped with a "gas chamber" which holds chemical solutions that react and create sufficient gas pressure to hoist whatever's waiting to be hoisted.

What's really wonderful about the gadget, though, is that in lowering the load, the exhaust of gases may be used to inflate tires. Also it will inflate tires independent of its capacity to lift and lower.

The answer to the farmer's prayer is a hand-operated plow which runs along on a wheel in front. Progress on the "Lower 40" is accomplished by pushing handles up and down while the plow's blade churns up the earth.

The inventor claims that leverage can be adjusted to move the plow varying distances with the same amount of movement on the handles. The plow also may be adjusted to suit the strength of the operator—a feature which is expected to provide a greater opportunity for women in the fields.

MUST BE PSYCHOLOGIST

BALTIMORE—Today's successful hairdresser must be a psychologist as well, because "if a girl is disappointed in love, her hair becomes almost uncurable."

This girl was reported to the Maryland Hairdressers and Cosmetologists convention by Dr. Herman Stein, who works in the American Research Laboratory at New York.

Stein said hair is governed by emotional reactions as well as its owner's physical state.

SHOT FOUR TIMES WHILE ON WAY TO EVENING PRAYER

liant, Reverend Asceltic who never in his own life had lifted a hand in anger came as a shocking blow to the teeming multitudes who obeyed his slightest wish.

The esteem in which he was held throughout the world was made manifest by the stream of sympathetic message which poured into New Delhi.

The intense excitement prevailing immediately after the shooting made it difficult to piece together the whole story.

Gandhi had left Birla House at the usual time. He was supported by his granddaughters Aya and Manu. There was the usual murmur of greeting from the throng when suddenly the assassin, described as a man of between 30 and 35, fired four times from the hip.

Slumps To Pavement
All of the bullets found their mark. Gandhi slumped to the pavement. His granddaughters wailed as they tried to lift him and other women rushed from the throng to shield his body from further attacks.

A great crimson patch of blood stained Gandhi's snow-white cotton dhoti from neck to abdomen and the blood dripped as he was carried into his residence. A short while later a member of his entourage came out of Birla House and said to the stunned, silent crowd:

"Bapu (father) is finished."

Hundreds if not thousands of persons witnessed Gandhi's tragic death.

Eye-witnesses said that just before he fell he raised both his hands and folded them in a salute to his congregation.

Within a few moments after his passing was announced at 5:56 p. m., New Delhi time, every newspaper office and government bureau was swamped with telephone calls from persons who had heard the "terrifying" news.

Linked With Bombing
Informed circles linked the assassination with a bomb explosion that occurred only 10 days ago while Gandhi was addressing a prayer meeting. They believe the shooting climaxed a definite pre-arranged conspiracy to kill him.

Every shop in the old city of Delhi put up its shutters as soon as word of Gandhi's death circulated into bazaars, streets and homes.

Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru and other Indian officials were informed of Gandhi's death by telephone.

Governor-General Viscount Mountbatten first heard the tidings from his chauffeur who had learned of it while listening to the radio.

The All-India radio broadcast the news on all wave-lengths and to all parts of the teeming subcontinent. Communications have improved in India during recent years but it still may be a long time before many of Gandhi's most beloved followers in the hinterlands learn that their leader has been killed.

Graphic Description
One of the most graphic descriptions of the incident was furnished by a correspondent of the British Broadcasting company who was on the scene at the time of the attack. He said:

"I was about 10 yards away from Gandhi when the shots were fired. They were not loud but sounded like firecrackers."

"A terrible cry of grief went up from the crowd when it realized what had happened."

"About 400 to 500 men, women and children wept openly and beat their breasts."

"After the shooting, Gandhi slumped to the ground immediately and was carried inside."

"A heavily-set man was arrested. He had blood on his clothes, indicating he was wounded by the crowd."

"Gandhi was a few minutes late in arriving at the meeting. He came across the lawn without assistance and it was as he mounted the steps that the crowd surged around him for his blessing that he was shot."

Although he had lived most of his life with utmost simplicity, Gandhi died in luxurious surroundings.

Japan's Population Problem Is Menace

By HOWARD HANDLEMAN
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

TOKYO, Jan. 30.—The world must solve Japan's population problem by 1970 or face an eruption which will threaten world peace.

This is the view of top-flight American officials in Japan who see ahead to the time when even heavy imports will be insufficient to sustain the population.

At present Japan has more than 78,000,000 people and the population is gaining at the rate of 1,100,000 every year.

A high American official said: "It might be that these islands could hold 100,000,000, but certainly no more than that could live here."

"When they do get to that point there will be many Japanese forced into a life of brigandage, preying upon the rest for the food they eat and for the other sensual pleasures of living."

Would Endanger World Peace
"A situation like that, of course, would endanger world peace."

"I know the Japanese made their population problem an unpopular one abroad because they used it as a basic propaganda argument."

"Unfortunately the Japanese have forced the rest of the world to distrust them, particularly on diplomatic levels, because they are so accomplished in the fine art of combining the truth and the lie."

"We here in Tokyo are forced to distrust everything they tell us because from past experiences we know they are expert in presenting a case which is 95 per cent truth and five per cent warped interpretation or downright lie."

Population Problem Real
"Their population problem, however, is real, and although they probably can get along all right for another generation, they are going to be at the danger point when they reach 100,000,000."

"Birth control is not the answer. It probably would only cut down the birthrate by about 100,000, and that would leave a yearly gain of 1,000,000."

"The classical Malthus theory of wars and disease taking care of surplus population does not seem feasible in Japan today."

"Japan has renounced war, and the Allied Nations are determined to make certain that she does not renounce her renunciation. We hope that will eliminate war as a population control for the Japanese."

"Modern sanitation minimizes the possibility of epidemic."

"So the answer will have to be provided some way by the other nations which have space, or control space, into which Japanese can emigrate."

IT TAKES MONEY
It takes money to make money. In years gone by most people thought this phrase was confined to millionaires, but put your dollar into U. S. savings bonds and watch money make extra money for you.

REAL VALUE
The real value of a U. S. savings bond must be reckoned in terms of financial security, freedom from worry, assurance in the future. That's why you must keep U. S. savings bonds.

Income Taxpayers Are Urged To File Returns Promptly

Taxpayers Who Will File On Short
Form W-2 Particularly Asked
To Make Prompt Return

Stanley Granger, collector of internal revenue for the western Pennsylvania area, today asked taxpayers to file their income tax returns as promptly as possible in order to avoid the 11th hour rush, which is certain to come by the first of March.

Those who expect to file returns on the W-2 short form blank are particularly requested to file their returns now. This can be done at the local internal revenue office, second floor Post Office building, here. General speaking, the Form W-2 (employees statement of earnings) may be used where other income does not exceed $100 and where total deductions for taxes, interest, and medical expense do not exceed 10 per cent of the gross income as stated on Form W-2.

Taxpayers should prepare their own forms at home, where at all possible, and can assist the local office by adding up their combined earnings, and tax withheld from all employers, in cases where they were employed during the year by more than one employer.

All employers are requested to cooperate by furnishing their employees statement of earnings as promptly as possible.

To Teach Students Repairing Of Books

BETHLEHEM, Pa., Jan. 30.—(INS)—Howard S. Leach, librarian at Lehigh University, has announced that students will be taught how to repair books.

The project, initiated by Miss Mary Voss, assistant cataloguer, and James Dennison, a senior who has done similar work in the New York public library.

The students will earn money while learning the job, and at the same time offer a service to their classmates. Savings are expected since the cost of commercial binding has increased and time will also be saved as volumes can be rebound within 24 hours.

BIVALVES
Oyster and clams and other shellfish having two shells are called bivalves.

Some of them are good to eat. With our rapid transportation and food refrigeration we can have sea food often.

Oysters provide nourishment and minerals which are needed by the body.

They are usually combined with other things which help to make a well balanced dish.

Oyster stew, made with butter and milk and eaten with crackers, is a pretty fine lay out.

Fried oysters are a good proposition. They should not be cooked too long.

Six oysters provide about as many calories as a slice of bread does.

German Schools Face Shortage Books, Teachers

LEWISBURG, Jan. 30.—(INS)—Schools in the American zone in Germany face an acute shortage of both trained teachers and textbooks.

The discouraging educational picture was painted by Dr. Frank G. Davis, professor of education at Bucknell University, who spent three months in Europe.

While on an extended visit in the German state of Hesse, Davis was commissioned by the U. S. military government to make a survey for a proposed guidance program in the schools and in the labor office.

Villages in the American zone are swollen with German refugees who have crossed from the Russian zone despite constant vigilance of American authorities, Dr. Davis reported. He noted lack of "neighborliness" between the two zones.

PRR Announces Opening Four-Year Student Scholarship

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 30.—(INS)—The Pennsylvania Railroad has announced the opening of a competition for a four-year scholarship at the University of Pennsylvania beginning in September.

The scholarship established at the university, in 1920, by the "Pennsylvania Railroad Women's Division for War Relief" in honor of the employees of the freight traffic department who lost their lives in World War I, is open to sons and daughters of present or deceased employees of the railroad's traffic department.

Tests for the next award will be held in May, and the winner is entitled to tuition in any four-year course at the university.

Eisenhower Was Number One Choice Before Withdrawal

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—(INS)—A Fortune magazine survey released today shows that Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower was the nation's No. 1 choice for president before he withdrew from the race.

The magazine said the retiring chief of staff led President Truman, with Republicans Thomas E. Dewey, Harold E. Stassen and Gen. Douglas MacArthur, virtually tied for third place in the poll.

The survey was conducted before Henry Wallace announced his candidacy on a third party ticket.

Cage Battle Will Swell Fund To Stamp Out Polio

Young men will play tonight, so that others may walk—in other words the New Castle Elks Lodge 69 basketball team, is playing a "March of Dimes" benefit fund game tonight at Washington high floor with the strong Bellevue AA team. A crowd of over 1,000 will satisfy the Elks, and will certainly satisfy the fund being raised here in Lawrence County for the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. The prelin starts at 7:15 o'clock—Elks Reserves vs. Shenango Colored "Y".

The fight on this dread disease "polio" is nationwide in scope, and the Elks club members, always willing to do their bit for a worthy cause, have unwritten the entire expense of this game tonight, so that the proceeds in their entirety may be turned over to Lawrence County Chairman Bill Hanna for the "March of Dimes", sponsored by the National Infantile Paralysis Foundation.

Hope For Reward
It is the earnest hope of the Elks that a fine sum can be realized from this game tonight. The effort last year produced quite a nice contribution.

New Castle has never let its worthy cause, down and there is every reason to believe that the fans will be on hand tonight to see a swell ball game and at the same time lend their help to a "crippled" kiddy, a youngster stricken down in the budding of life by a terrible monster.

Will See Good Game
Coach Paul Morrison has his Elks "Big Five" in the best shape of the year for this important scrap. The two Pitters, Waters, Caray, Adams, Eddie Kosela, Kelly are all ready for a big evening on the hardwood court.

Bellevue is bringing a better than average team here of ex-college and high school stars, headed by Frankie Morris of Pitt last year, Earl Taylor, Avalon high star, Bob Baumbech 6-2 All-State Catholic player in 1945, Don Albright, a great dribbler from Bellevue high, Sam Zeman, 6 foot 2-inch, ex-Ohio University star, and Sam Cosentino, ex-captain of the Pitt Panthers.

No Reserved Seats
It will be a humdinger of a preliminary game too. George Patterson's Elks Reserves meeting the championship Shenango "Y" club. The Reserves have been having a wonderful season to date and are out to take the measure of the colored boys tonight, a tough task. The tickets sell for 60 cents, and there are no reserved seats, it will be first there, first served, so you had better plan to get there early if you don't want to stand up.

The Washington high floor will be a place where good fellows meet tonight.

East Liverpool Edges Pulaskis

At Gonet's K.P. "Big Five" dropped a 50-44 game at the Broadway Gym in E. Liverpool, O., last night to the Legion quint of that town.

Leading going into the final heat, the K.P. men faded to lose by a close margin.

Cooper and Kelley stood out for the locals while Baur, with 15, paced the Ohioans.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 30.—(INS)—Eddie Miller, star shortstop for the Cincinnati Reds was happy today that the National league club had decided to put him on the trading block.

At his suburban Cleveland home, Miller said last night that he believed the decision was "best for everyone concerned."

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 30.—(INS)—The signed contracts of two new Pittsburgh Pirates, both shooting for first-string berths, were received by Pirate General Manager Roy Hamey today.

The signing of the two men, first baseman Eddie Stevens and second baseman Danny Martauagh, brings to 21 the number of signed Bucs.

Stevens, an ex-Dodger, played for Montreal last season where he batted .287, hit 27 home runs and knocked in 108 markers. At 23 he may begin to live up to the bright future predicted for him.

Fast Contests Played At 'Y'

Shenango Pottery, United Engineering, Castles Post Victories

Exhibition basketball was on the menu last night at the "Y" floor with three fast tilts offered the fans.

The Shenango Pottery took a 55-45 contest from the Rochester Legion, with Krueger the big gun. The Castles walloped the Calabaria Club, 49-32, and the United Engineering won, 56-46 over the United Machine Shop five.

"Tonight in the House League the Rebels meet the Redskins, and the G. I. Shines oppose the Wings. In the Shenango Pottery loop the 49'rs and the Jiggermen play and the Dept. 26 lads tangle with the Handle Shop.

Titans Defeat Geneva 66-45

Allan McCullough, Bruce Wagner, Lloyd Cable, Gungino Stars In Rough Game Thursday

(Special To The News)
NEW WILMINGTON, Jan. 30.—Westminster's Titan floor team made it two in a row over their arch-rivals from Geneva college at the Westminster gym, winning handily 66 to 45 after staving off a Geneva threat in the third period. The Titans won at Beaver Falls 75 to 61.

It was a typical Westminster-Geneva battle, rough in spots and with four players getting the old "heave" from the officials for violations. McCullough and Dembinski of the Grover Washbaugh camp took early showers in the third period. Vlasic and Gungino for the Geneva got tossed out later in the game.

Fouls Galore
There were altogether 62 fouls tried in the game at the free-throw line and resulted in Westminster making 20 out of 33 and Geneva 17 out of 29. You couldn't hear yourself think for whistle blowing. Westminster got a good start in the first period and led 16 to 3 at the close. The halftime score was 25 to 23, a real ball game, with Geneva making it interesting. The end of the third period it was 44 to 35 with Geneva still very much in the ball game, but the last period was a runaway affair with the Titans dropping them in from all angles to win by 21 points, a complete rout. The Titans have won eight and lost three.

Scoring stars in the game were McCullough and Wagner for Westminster and Lloyd Cable and Gungino for the invaders. Cable had nine out of 17 foul tries. Dick Fuhrer, relieving Dembinski at center, played a fine game, getting seven, while Donnie Heddlston had nine.

Play In Philadelphia
Saturday night the Westminster team will play St. Joseph's at Philadelphia and Monday will meet the Millersville Teachers at the Millersville State Teachers college. Wednesday, February 4, Westminster will play at Juniata.

MILLENNIUM?

An inquiring reporter for a metropolitan newspaper recently stopped six persons on the street and asked them what they thought of their landlady. All replied that he is a fine guy. Now we are beginning to believe that the millennium is at hand.

Report Inventors Are Applying "New Look"

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—(INS)

The patent office reported today that inventors have taken the "new look" to heart and begin applying it to everything from baby carriages to farm equipment. In fact patent officials declare, whatever innovations France may make to further progress of her zany fashions, the ingenuity of American inventors will outdo in making more desirable the common things in life.

Some Recent Patents
1. A baby carriage, with sleigh runners to replace the wheels when Jack Frost overcomes O' Sol.
2. An auto jack which operates by chemical reaction, eliminating mechanical action and inflating tires in the same fizz.
3. A plow which operates without a horse or tractor, by means of a wheel which glides the plow along a Farmer Jones works "handle bars up and down."

If that isn't outdoing the "new look" the patent office people want to know what is.

The baby carriage-sled, officials say, was probably inspired by the wintry inconveniences of Minnesota where the inventor lives.

Bit More Complicated
The auto jack is just a bit more complicated. The jack is equipped with a "gas chamber" which holds chemical solutions that react and create sufficient gas pressure to hoist whatever's waiting to be hoisted.

What's really wonderful about the gadget, though, is that in lowering the load, the exhaust of gases may be used to inflate tires. Also it will inflate tires independent of its capacity to lift and lower.

The answer to the farmer's prayer is a hand-operated plow which runs along on a wheel in front. Progress on the "Lower 40" is accomplished by pushing handles up and down while the plow's blade churns up the earth.

The inventor claims that leverage can be adjusted to move the plow varying distances with the same amount of movement on the handles. The plow also may be adjusted to suit the strength of the operator—a feature which is expected to provide a greater opportunity for women in the fields.

MUST BE PSYCHOLOGIST
BALTIMORE—Today's successful hairdresser must be a psychologist as well, because "if a girl is disappointed in love, her hair becomes almost unmanageable."

This girl was reported to the Maryland Hairdressers and Cosmetologists convention by Dr. Herman Stein, who works in the American Research Laboratory at New York.

Stein said hair is governed by emotional reactions as well as its owner's physical state.

Cows perspire very little, and barns must be built so that they will not suffer under high temperatures and humidity.

Graphical Description
One of the most graphic descriptions of the incident was furnished by a correspondent of the British Broadcasting company who was on the scene at the time of the attack. He said:

"I was about 10 yards away from Gandhi when the shots were fired. They were not loud but sounded like firecrackers."

"A terrible cry of grief went up from the crowd when it realized what had happened."

"About 400 to 500 men, women and children wept openly and beat their breasts."

"After the shooting, Gandhi slumped to the ground immediately and was carried inside."

"A heavily-set man was arrested. He had blood on his clothes, indicating he was wounded by the crowd."

"Gandhi was a few minutes late in arriving at the meeting. He came across the lawn without assistance and it was as he mounted the steps that the crowd surged around him for his blessing that he was shot."

Although he had lived most of his life with utmost simplicity, Gandhi died in luxurious surroundings.

Hant, Reverend Ascetic who never in his own life had lifted a hand in anger came as a shocking blow to the teeming multitudes who obeyed his slightest wish.

The esteem in which he was held throughout the world was made manifest by the stream of sympathetic messages which poured into New Delhi.

The intense excitement prevailing immediately after the shooting made it difficult to piece together the whole story.

Gandhi had left Birla House at the usual time. He was supported by his granddaughters Anu and Manu. There was the usual murmur of greeting from the throng when suddenly the assassin, described as a man of between 30 and 35, fired four times from the hip.

Slumps To Pavement
All of the bullets found their mark. Gandhi slumped to the pavement. His granddaughters wailed as they tried to lift him and other women rushed from the throng to shield his body from further attacks.

A great crimson patch of blood stained Gandhi's snow-white cotton dhoti from neck to abdomen and the blood dripped as he was carried into his residence. A short while later a member of his entourage came out of Birla House and said to the stunned, silent crowd:

"Bapu (father) is finished." Hundreds if not thousands of persons witnessed Gandhi's tragic death.

Eye-witnesses said that just before he fell he raised both his hands and folded them in a salute to his congregation.

Within a few moments after his passing was announced at 5:56 p. m., New Delhi time, every newspaper office and government bureau was swamped with telephone calls from persons who had heard the "terrifying" news.

Linked With Bombing
Informed circles linked the assassination with a bomb explosion that occurred only 10 days ago while Gandhi was addressing a prayer meeting. They believe the shooting climaxed a definite pre-arranged conspiracy to kill him.

Every shop in the old city of Delhi put up its shutters as soon as word of Gandhi's death circulated into bazaars, streets and homes.

Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru and other Indian officials were informed immediately by telephone. Governor-General Viscount Mountbatten first heard the tidings from his chauffeur who had learned of it while listening to the radio.

The All-India radio broadcast the news on all wavelengths and to all parts of the teeming sub-continent. Communications have improved in India during recent years but it still may be a long time before many of Gandhi's most beloved followers in the hinterlands learn that their leader has been killed.

Japan's Population Problem Is Menace

By HOWARD HANDLEMAN
(N. S. Staff Correspondent)

TOKYO, Jan. 30.—The world must solve Japan's population problem by 1970 or face an eruption which will threaten world peace.

This is the view of top-flight American officials in Japan who see ahead to the time when even heavy imports will be insufficient to sustain the population.

At present Japan has more than 78,000,000 people and the population is gaining at the rate of 1,000,000 every year.

A high American official said: "It might be that these islands could hold 100,000,000, but certainly no more than that could live here."

"When they do get to that point there will be many Japanese forced into a life of brigandage, preying upon the rest for the food they eat and for the other sensual pleasures of living."

World Endanger World Peace
"A situation like that, of course, would endanger world peace."

"I know the Japanese made their population problem an unpopular one abroad because they used it as a basic propaganda argument."

"Unfortunately the Japanese have forced the rest of the world to distrust them, particularly on diplomatic levels, because they are so accomplished in the fine art of combining the truth and the lie."

"We here in Tokyo are forced to distrust everything they tell us because from past experiences we know they are expert in presenting a case which is 85 per cent truth and five per cent warped interpretation or downright lie."

It takes money to make money. In years gone by most people thought this phrase was confined to millionaires, but put your dollars into U. S. savings bonds and watch money make extra money for you.

REAL VALUE
The real value of a U. S. savings bond must be reckoned in terms of financial security, freedom from worry, assurance in the future. That's why you must keep U. S. savings bonds.

MEAT PRODUCTION DROPS
WASHINGTON—Meat production dropped sharply last week, the agriculture department reported, some officials privately expressed fear that the gap between supply and demand this year would be even worse than predicted.

EUROPEANS CAN'T VOTE
Old Senator Sorghum says that President Truman went too far in promising so much help to Europe—those Europeans can't vote in our November elections.

Elks-Bellevue In "March Of Dimes" Benefit Tilt

Cage Battle Will Swell Fund To Stamp Out Polio

Young men will play tonight, so that others may walk—in other words the New Castle Elks Lodge 69 basketball team, is playing a "March of Dimes" benefit fund game tonight at Washington high floor with the strong Bellevue AA team. A crowd of over 1,000 will satisfy the Elks, and will certainly satisfy the fund being raised here in Lawrence County for the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. The game starts at 7:15 o'clock—Elks Reserves vs. Shenango Colored "Y".

The fight on this dread disease "polio" is nationwide in scope, and the Elks club members, always willing to do their bit for a worthy cause, have unwritten the entire expense of this game tonight, so that the proceeds in their entirety may be turned over to Lawrence County Chairman Bill Hanna for the "March of Dimes", sponsored by the National Infantile Paralysis Foundation.

Hope For Reward

It is the earnest hope of the Elks that a fine sum can be realized from this game tonight. The effort last year produced quite a nice contribution.

New Castle has never let any worthy cause, down, and there is every reason to believe that the fans will be on hand tonight to see a swell ball game and at the same time lend their help to a "crippled" kiddy, a youngster stricken down in the budding of life by a terrible monster called polio.

Will See Good Game

Coch Paul Morrison has his Elks "Big Five" in the best shape of the year for this important scrap. The two Pitzers, Watters, Carey, Adams, Eddie Kozela, Kelly are all ready for a big evening on the hardwood court.

Bellevue Is Bringing A Better Than Average Team Here

Bellevue is bringing a better than average team here of ex-college and high school stars, headed by Frankie Morris of Pitt last year, Earl Taylor, Avalon last year, Bob Baumbach, 6-2 All-State Catholic player in 1945, Don Albright, a great dribbler from Bellevue high, Sam Zeman, 6 foot, 2-inch, ex-Ohio University star, and Sam Costantino, ex-captain of the Pitt Panthers.

No Reserved Seats

It will be a humdinger of a preliminary game too. George Patterson's Elks Reserves meeting the championship Shenango "Y" club. The Reserves have been having a wonderful season to date and are out to take the measure of the colored boys tonight, a tough task.

The Tickets Sell For 50 Cents

The tickets sell for 50 cents, and there are no reserved seats. It will be first, first, served, so you had better plan to get there early if you don't want to stand up.

The Washington High Floor Will Be A Place Where Good Fellows Meet Tonight

East Liverpool Edges Pulaskis

Al Conet's K.P. "Big Five" dropped a 58-54 game at the Broadway Gym in E. Liverpool, O., last night to the Legion quint of that town.

Leading going into the final heat, the K.P. men faded to lose by a close margin.

Cooper and Kelley stood out for the locals while Baur, with 18, paced the Ohioans.

SPORTS

Sport Sparks

CINCINNATI, Jan. 30.—(INS)—Eddie Miller, star shortstop for the Cincinnati Reds was happy today that the National League club had decided to put him on the trading block.

At his suburban home, Miller said last night that he believed the decision was "best for everyone concerned."

Pittsburgh, Jan. 30.—(INS)—The signed contracts of two new Pittsburgh Pirates, both shooting for first-string berths, were received by Pirate General Manager Roy Hamey today.

The signing of the two men, first baseman Eddie Stevens and second baseman Danny Marlaugh, brings to 21 the number of signed Pies.

Stevens, an ex-Dodger, played for Montreal last season when he batted .287, hit 27 home runs and knocked in 108 markers. At 23 now, he may begin to live up to the bright future predicted for him.

Fast Contests Played At Y

Shenango Pottery, United Engineering, Castles Post Victories

Exhibition basketball was on the menu last night at the "Y" floor with three fast tilts offered the fans.

The Shenango Pottery took a 55-45 contest from the Rochester L. E. club, with Krueger the big gun, the Castles walloped the Calabraz Club, 49-32, and the United Engineering won, 56-46 over the United Machine Shop five.

Tonight in the House League the Rebels meet the Redskins, and the G. I. Shines oppose the Wings. In the Shenango Pottery loop, the 49's and the Juggernaut play and the Dept. 26 lads tangle with the Handle Shop.

Titans Defeat Geneva 66-45

Allan McCullough, Bruce Wagner, Lloyd Cable, Gungino Stay In Rough Game Thursday

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Jan. 30.—Westminster's "Titan" floor team made it two in a row over their arch-rivals from Geneva college at the Westminster gym, winning handily 66 to 45 after staving off a Geneva threat in the third period. The Titans won at Beaver Falls 75 to 61.

It was a typical Westminster-Geneva battle, rough in spots and with four players getting the old "thump" from the officials for violations. McCullough and Dembinski of the Grover Washburn clan took early showers in the third period, while Cable and Gungino for the Geneva got tossed out later in the game.

Fouls Galore

There were altogether 62 fouls tried in the game at the free-throw line and resulted in Westminster making 20 out of 33 and Geneva 17 out of 29. You couldn't hear your own voice without shouting.

Westminster got a good start in the first period and led 10 to 3 at the close. The halftime score was 25 to 23, a real ball game, with Geneva making it interesting. The end of the third period it was 44 to 35 with Geneva still very much in the ball game, but the last period was a runaway affair with the Titans dropping them in from all angles to win by 21 points, a complete rout. The Titans have won eight and lost three.

Scoring stars in the game were McCullough and Wagner for Westminster and Lloyd Cable and Gungino for the invaders. Cable had nine out of 17 foul tries. Dick Fuhrer, relieving Dembinski at center, played a fine game, getting seven, while Donnie Heddlston had nine.

Play In Philadelphia

Saturday night the Westminster team will play St. Joseph's at Philadelphia and Monday will meet the Millersville Teachers at the Millersville State Teachers college. Wednesday, February 4, Westminster will play at Juniata.

Class "A" Teams Are Idle; New Castle At Duquesne

County W. P. I. A. A. cage action will be centered upon the hot section 23 cage tonight. Section 3 quint will draw an idle night as far as loop competition is concerned, but New Castle will take advantage of the schedule break to play their final exhibition tilt of the campaign—at Duquesne against the "Little Dukes" of section 6.

In the "B" bracket the second round tilting will commence, with Bessmer vs. current pace-setters with a 6 and 1 record, going to East Brook. Coach Bill Ciccone's Centeniers played fine ball to pull away from the field in the first seven contests and will be out to notch No. 7 at the expense of the Eagles.

Wampum, the defending titlist and still clinging to hopes of repeating again, will invade Princeton. The Redskins have copied five and dropped two and are favored to win tonight. Princeton bagged its first victory of the campaign Tuesday, nipping East Brook and will be out for more of the same against the Henson crew.

Shenango and Mt. Jackson, both of whom lost ground via setbacks Tuesday, will collide at the Wildcat court in what should be the best pairing of the night. Rounding out the state will be the Union-New Wilmington scrap with the game scheduled for the Greyhound floor.

Cane Hope To Win

Added prestige can be gained by the Bill Douglass flippers if they make a successful invasion of the Pittsburgh area tonight. The Hurricane mentor remembers well the last time he took his charges into the Section 6 hornet's nest—suffering a 50-23 shattering at the hands of Homestead and would like to even the count this evening.

The Dukes have the same record as the locals in their loop—four wins and two losses, and rest in third place, behind McKeesport and Homestead. They dropped a 30-29 heartbreaker Tuesday to the latter quint.

Conched by portly Bill Lemmer, who last campaign took them to the state finals, the Dukes have a fast-breaking outfit, green but potent, and have been more than holding their own in one of the toughest sections of the WPAL.

Lemmer has been shifting his Hawks from game to game but finds the array of Frank Nassida and Carl Pacacha, forwards, "Jaggies" Keane at center and Andy Washington and Connie Kolar, guards a smooth-working unit.

The Cane ringmaster is expected to field a lineup of Black and Spears, forwards, Gribble, center, and Gray and Janncone, guards. This combine, with Don Reed, 30-28 flash, showing pivot duties, has averaged 55 points in the last three encounters to climb in the Section 3 race.

Have Done Well Job

Featured in the Oil City lineup is the giant 6 foot 6 inch "Wimpy" Ward, former Geneva College star who has played in Madison Square Garden and the Convention Hall in Philadelphia. He is the pivot around which the Oil City team works.

A packed Union high gym tonight will gratify the volunteer firemen who have organized a first-class department, and so far have done a splendid job.

ELLWOOD EAGLES BOOKING

The Ellwood City Eagles are booking games with first class independent basketball teams on home and home basis, any teams interested should write or phone Danny Piccolo, 102 13th street, Ellwood City, Pa. Phone 2065-W.

Baxter Not To Box Jack Biddle

Russell Baxter will not fight Jack Biddle Monday night in Miami.

He is still here. Offered the fight by Sam Weinstein, matchmaker of Miami, Baxter asked for carfare in advance, which is customary fight procedure. The money was not forthcoming, hence Baxter is here. When Biddle will fight isn't known.

Bessemer Legion Trips Boardman

Bessemer Legion basketball team trounced the Boardman Collegians last night at the Bessemer High floor, 84 to 45, with Kurler having 15 of the points and Paul Johnson and Peltz with 14. Zimmerman led for the losers with 19 points. Tonight Bessemer Legion will play the strong Sharpville Legion at the Bessemer floor at 8:15 o'clock.

The proceeds of the game will go into the fire department coffers for badly needed equipment. The citizens of the township can help swell this fund by turning out for the ball games tonight. The cause is a most worthy one.

Expert Tough Battle

Al Conet, coach and business manager of the K. P. "Big Five" is looking for a tough battle at the hands of the Oil City Merchants, a highly rated Venango county quintet.

"We'll have to be at top strength tonight to win this one," Conet stated. The Oilers having dropped a close one to the Elks recently, will be out to win tonight over the Pulaskis.

LEGAL NOTICES

SUMMARY OF RESOLUTION

CREATING THE BONDED INDEBTEDNESS OF THE SCHOOL DISTRICT OF NESHANNOK TOWNSHIP, LAWRENCE COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA, BY AN ISSUE OF COUPON BONDS IN THE AMOUNT OF $80,000.00, FIXING THE FORM, NUMBER, DATE, INTEREST AND MATURITY THEREOF; LEVYING A TAX FOR PAYMENT OF PRINCIPAL, INTEREST AND STATE TAX, AUTHORIZING EXECUTION, SALE AND DELIVERY THEREOF; AND MAKING AN APPROPRIATION.

Whereas it was found necessary that the bonded indebtedness of the said School District be increased by the amount of $80,000.00 for the purpose of building an addition to the Walmo School Building in said district, and in pursuance of a Resolution of the Board of Directors of the said School District adopted October 1, 1947, a public hearing was held on November 4, 1947 to obtain the assent of the electors of said district to such increase of bonded indebtedness and notice of said election was given according to law, and the County Board of Elections having regularly conducted the votes cast and made return thereof, and having certified to the Board of Directors of the said School District that a majority of electors voting at said election voted for and assented to said increase of bonded indebtedness, which certified return has been placed on record on the minutes of the said Board.

Now, Therefore, it was resolved and enacted as follows:

Section 1. That the bonded indebtedness of the said School District be and the same is hereby increased by the amount of Eighty-eight Thousand Dollars ($88,000.00) for the purpose of building an addition to the Walmo School Building to provide for the rapidly increasing school age population of said district.

Section 2. Said indebtedness shall be evidenced by eighty-eight (88) general obligation bonds in coupon form numbered consecutively from one (1) to eighty-eight (88), both numbers inclusive, in the principal sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1000.00) dated and bearing interest from February 1, 1948, at the rate of two and one-half percent (2 1/2%) per annum, payable semi-annually on the first day of the months of August and February in each year during the term of the said bonds, and which bonds mature Four (4) years after the date of issue, to-wit: August 1 of each year from 1952 to 1956 inclusive, and Five Thousand Dollars ($5000.00) on February 1 of each year from 1957 to 1961 inclusive, and the bonds maturing after February 1, 1954, shall be redeemed prior to their respective maturity at the option of the said School District, in whole or in part, at the inverse order of their maturity, on February 1, 1954, or on any other date thereafter, by the payment of principal with accrued interest to the redemption date and a premium of two per cent (2%) of the principal amount, upon not less than thirty (30) days prior notice by publication once a week for two weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in said School District of Neshannok Township, the first publication to be at least thirty (30) days and not more than forty (40) days before the redemption date, and by mailing written notice to any registered owner of the bonds. The principal and interest are payable at the Citizens National Bank of New Castle, Pa., without deduction for any taxes except gift, succession or inheritance taxes which may be levied pursuant to any present or future law of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, all of which taxes the said School District assumes and agrees to pay as the same may be from time to time assessed.

Section 3. The period of usefulness of the improvements for which the said bonds are to be issued is thirty (30) years.

Section 4. Said bonds are declared to be general obligations of the School District of Neshannok Township, Lawrence County, Pennsylvania, and of the full faith and credit of the said School District.

Section 5. Prescribes the form of the bonds of the said district, and annexed, each of said bonds being in the sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1000.00) dated and bearing interest at two and one-half percent (2 1/2%) per annum, and reciting that said bonds are to be issued to provide for the purpose of building an addition to the Walmo School Building to provide for the rapidly increasing school age population of said district, and that the said bonds shall be delivered to the Secretary of the said School District and after such registration no transfer shall be effected except upon the books of the said secretary, unless the last transfer so registered shall have been by delivery of the coupons by registration of the bonds. The bonds also may be registered both as to principal and interest, and when so registered all coupons shall be detached and cancelled, the registration noted upon the Bond Register Book, and thereafter semi-annual interest shall be paid by check or warrant mailed to the address of the registered owner of the bonds, upon said Bond Register Book.

Section 6. Authorizes the president and secretary of the Board of Directors of said School District to execute the said bonds on behalf of the said School District to affix the corporate seal of the District thereto, and to cause the coupons to be authenticated by the signature or signatures of the treasurer, and also authorizes the treasurer to deliver the bonds to the purchasers and receive payment therefor in the manner and subject to the provisions of the Statutes.

Section 7. City Hall

City To Receive Tax Sales Sum

Allotment To City From 70 Tax Sales Is Announced As $9,266.50

OTHER NEWS OF COUNCIL SESSION

Council met in city hall Thursday and formally requested County Controller Andrew Dodds for a warrant, representing the city's share of 70 tax sales, the total of which is $9,266.50.

Dodds had reported to the city the various allotments he had arranged, as follows:

Cost of proceedings, $2,282.01; share to county, $4,156.54; share to Lawrence county institution district, $1,971.47; city's share, $9,266.50; share to school district, $14,918.48.

Finance Director Albert Hoyland introduced a bill providing for the bond for the deputy finance director, who is Miss Edith Cleveland. Mr. Hoyland indicated she would be renamed March 1 to her position which she has filled ably.

Streets Director James Gibson introduced a bill which provides for the re-curb of Charles street, between Moravia and Morris streets. The curbs, which were paid for by abutting property-owners, were installed by the WPA. Since then they have crumbled. The city will bear the re-curb cost.

Director of Streets and Sewers James Gibson, who also has charge of the city motor mechanic's bureau, today stated he would recommend Chris Walker for re-appointment as the city mechanic.

District Truckers Gather Here Feb. 7

District Meeting To Be Sponsored By Lawrence County Chapter PMTA

Truck operators from ten western Pennsylvania counties will gather in New Castle on Saturday night, February 7, when a district meeting will be held in The Castleton hotel. The meeting is expected to attract over 200 operators from the various counties.

Seminars upon several topics will be held. Insurance, safety, tandems, legislation and public relations will be discussed and other problems common to the industry.

A dinner will be held in the hotel after which the program will be presented. President J. Fred Clarke of the Lawrence county chapter PMTA will head the meeting and introduce the speakers. On Saturday, March 25, the annual Ladies Night dinner will be held in the Cathedral. This is expected to attract a crowd of upwards of 1000.

According to a Philadelphia wig-maker, American women buy more than 100,000 wigs a year. He sells about 800 prefabricated hairdos a year to beauty parlors at $40 apiece.
